Contra Costa Yields Millions of Pears at Harvest Time

By ERWIN MATTSON

The pear season in Contra Costa County is being brought to a slow but sure close, with thousands of tons of the bell-shaped fruit already put away into cans via the cannery route or safely tucked in the numerous ice houses—to emerge later during the pineapple season, to be combined with other fruits in the popular fruit cocktail.

Two of the larger ranches in the local area are the Bishop Ranch over near Danville and the Moraga Ranch, located, as the name would indicate, in Moraga.

The Moraga Ranch, under Bill Barnes, produced more than 1400 tons of top quality fruit this season.

MANY OF THE trees on the Moraga Ranch are 40 years old and have been top producers of quality fruit for many seasons.

The biggest threat to pear production is the threat of subdivision homes—but that seems to be several years away.

The trucks, many of which haul 20 or more tons of fruit, have been a common sight on the local roads since early in August, when the pears were first harvested.

MAJOR PART of the tonnage is the world-famous Bartlett pear, with a small amount of Hardys and Camire pears finding their way to the market.

Many local people with a few trees of their own have set up roadside stands, with pears for sale at bargain prices. Their signs and products have made a colorful roadside setting, and business has been reported as being brisk.

Some of the fruit is handled by the local Walnut Creek Cannery, but the major portion is purchased by the California Packing Company and F and P, with some of the fruit going to the dryers.

Lagiss Findings Go Before Board Of Supervisors

Findings of the county planning staff for Neighborhood Business rezoning of Anthony G. Lagiss' 5-acre parcel on the west side of Pleasant Hill Road, across from Acalanes High School, were unanimously adopted by the County Planning Commission Tuesday night.

The controversial matter will come before the Board of Supervisors next Tuesday, for the scheduling of a public hearing before that body, Principal County Planner H. Russell Griffith, said yesterday.

In preparing its findings, the commission's technical staff followed the instructions of the commission when, by a 5-2 vote, it approved Lagiss' application July 31.

GRIFFITH REPORTED that the conditions specified in the findings were "practically the same" as those mentioned in discussion at the July 31 session.

"The application is for rezoning from Transition Residential-Agricultural to Neighborhood Business," Griffith said. "Neighborhood Business is a restricted zone."

Vigorous objection to the proposed rezoning has been registered by neighborhood improvement groups in the area, the Acalanes High School District Board and the Lafayette Improvement Association board.

Absentee Ballots Boost Bond Issue Approval Margin

Absentee ballot returns have increased the margin of approval in the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District's $8,900,000 sewer bond election.

At a meeting on August 23, directors opened the absentee ballots and found 37 in favor of the issue and 19 opposed. The total vote is now 2620 to 1219.

Two contracts for small construction projects also were approved.

The job of installing sewers in the Hopper tract at Danville was awarded to Dominguez Balanco of San Leandro on his low bid of $15,843.70

The 56-lot Hopper tract is situated in Local Improvement District 38 and has been developed with homes. Sewers will be laid starting by the middle of September, according to a sanitary district spokesman.

John H. McCosker, Inc., was awarded the contract for replacing the Walden Bridge sewer line creek crossing with an underground siphon pipe near Walden Avenue. The accepted bid of $13,593.75 was the lowest of the four submtited.

A request for annexation of the Hall property of Pleasant Hill was approved. The land, owned by Hiram D. Hall, is a 38-acre parcel adjacent to Grayson Road, west of Pleasant Hill Road. It is to be developed as a recreational park site.

Sales Clinic Is Wednesday

The clinic is co-sponsored by the division and the East Contra Costa Junior College. This will take place of the regular division meeting held monthly.

Obsolete Fire Equipment May Hike Lafayette Rates

The Lafayette Fire Department, is now using "obsolete" equipment and is in danger of being subject to an increased fire insurance rate.

This was the opinion of Fire Commissioner G. E. Parkhill who, in a leter to The Sun this week, charged that the anticipated completion of two new fire houses in Lafayette will not automatically mean a lower insurance rate.

THE FIRE HOUSE sites are currently being purchased by the district.

Parkhill took exception to the claim of Fire Board Secretary Mel Nielsen that the Board of Fire Underwriter classification of this district would be switched from Class 4 to Class 3, as reported in The Sun last week.

"As a matter of fact, Parkhill stated in the letter, "the situation is more serious than most people believe. The truth is that our present equipment is for the most part obsolete, with some of it dating back to 1937."

The commissioner went on to state that increased insurance rates may result unless steps are taken to improve the condition of the present equipment.

HE SUGGESTED several improvements that he felt should be made.

1. Purchase two new 1000 to 1500 gallon pumpers with turret nozzles.

2. Take the present tanks and pumps off the two best pieces of present equipment and replace them with larger tanks and pumps.

3. Purchase one new four-wheel drive piece of equipment capable of leaving the road and going in on grass fires.

4. Accomplish these things in addition to building the new fire houses.

UNLESS THE DEPARTMENT does these things, Parkhill averred, "we are in very real danger of having the Board of Fire Underwriters take away our present classification, resulting in an increased insurance rate for all of us."

Nielsen indicated last week that construction of the new houses would bring about the lower tax rate. He did ont mention any of the proposals offered by Parkhill.

THE COMMISSIONER also argued that a reclassification would not be conducive to lower tax rates, as Nielsen had also contended.

"A reclassification would lower the insurance rates," he said, "but would have no effect on the tax rate now in effect."

Parkhill also revealed that the meeting of fire chiefs in Sacramento last week was warned by the fire underwriters about the danger of higher insurance rates uless steps toward improvement were taken.

"In fact," he stated, "if it were not for the extreme efficiency, training and morale of the Fire Department, we would not now be in the position which we are.

"WE ARE FAR BEHIND Orinda, for example, where they have two new pumpers, with one more on order, and a new fire house."

Also included in Parkhill's letter was an affirmative voice on the reported prospect of having the sheriff's substation, currently located in Walnut Creek, move into the main Lafayette fire house.

HE SAID HE was "heartily in favor of the protection we will thereby secure for Lafayette," but added that this should be accomplished by building a second story onto the building, rather than "pushing fire engines out of the fire house."

"As a matter of fact," the letter concluded, "I want to see the fire house filled with new, modern equipment for the protection of the lives and property of all of us."

Legion to Award Honored Youths

Presentation of honor awards to four local youngsters will highlight the next meeting of Lafayette American Legion Post 517 next Wednesday night in the Veterans Memorial Building in Lafayette.

The post's auxiliary will also meet Wednesday evening in the Memorial Building.

Slated to be honored at the meeting, according to Post Commander Ed Rodman, are Christine Van Dorn, Fred Gandell, Donald Bone and Corky Kiesel.

Christine and Fred are recipients of the M. H. Stanley citizenship award. Donald will be honored as the local representative of Boys' State in Sacramento, and Corky, winner of this area's American Legion national U.S. Olympic contest, will also share in the honors.

The auxiliary, said Rodman, will join with the post for the presentations.

Falling Tree Kills 50-Year Resident Roy Bunker, 76

Long-time resident and retired postal clerk of Lafayette Roy Bunker, 76, was killed last Saturday when a tree he and two others were cutting down in front of his home at 3662 Happy Valley Road fell on him.

Bunker, who has lived locally for the past 50 years, his son, Frank, and his son-in-law, George M. Burt, who lives next door, were cutting down a 36-foot acacia tree beside the Bunker residence.

The accident ocurred, the sheriff's substation in Walnut Creek reported, as the younger Bunker and Burt were preparing to topple the tree by means of a block and tackle after the three men had notched it with an ax and sawed part way through the 18-inch trunk.

When the tree fell from the stump, sheriff's officers said, it descended in the wrong direction. Bunker was standing in the path of the falling timber and was struck on the head and killed instantly. He was pronounced dead by Dr. W. K. Caldwell.

A member of Acalanes Lodge F&AM, Bunker was a native Californian and farmed 20 acres of walnut trees at his home.

He is survived by his wife, Irene, another son, C. B. Reneau, and daughter Mrs. Burt. He was the brother of Mrs. Maude Hewlett and Mrs. Hazel Crosett, both of Lafayette, and Mrs. Allard Clakins of St. Helena. He is also survived by two grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the Little Chapel of Flowers in Walnut Creek, officiated by the Rev. Chester R. Lewis of the Lafayette Methodist Community Church.

Calcination followed.

3 Bids Rejected By School Board

All three bids for landscaping, grading and paving at Pine Grove School were rejected by the Orinda School District Board August 21 because they were considered too high, Superintendent of Schools Joseph L. Sheaff reported yesterday.

Meeting at the Pine Grove School, the board opened bids which were, respectively, for approximately $26,000, $24,000 and $23,000. The board had allocated $20,00 in the 1956-57 budget for the purpose, Sheaff said.

So the board decided to call again for bids, with separate bids to be submitted for the different jobs—grading, paving and landscaping. Thus the board will be able to have those jobs done which can be afforded, Sheaff explained.

Next board meeting will be at 7:3 p.m. Tuesday at Pine Grove School.

School Addition Plans Get State Preliminary OK

Approval for the preliminary drawings of the proposed additional classrooms at Sleepy Hollow School, plus additional all-purpose room and classrooms at the Pine Grove School, have been received from the State Department of Schoolhouse Planning in Sacramento, Orinda Superintendent of Schools Joseph L. Sheaff reported yesterday.

As a result, working drawings are now in progress and should be ready for final approval within the next four to six weeks, he said.

"Although the school district will have enough money for part of the construction, the Board of Trustees has submitted to the State Department of Finance an application for stae aid on these two projects," Sheaff stated.

"I is anticipated that a bond election will be held in the near future to ask approval of the voters in the school district (1) to borrow money from the state and (2) to enable the school district to sell its own bonds (up to the 5 per cent of the assessed valuation, which is the legal limit) as it becomes necessary and expedient to do so."

Local Man Injured

A Lafayette man was rushed to Brookside Hospital in Richmond recently after the car he was driving plowed into the rear of a heavy truck and trailer driven by Arley Noel Hood, 41, of 1258 Rudgear Road, Walnut Creek.

The injured man, Floyd H. Carmouch, 29, 719 Orange Street, was released from the hospital shortly after, having incurred only minor injuries, according to a hospital spokesman.

Road Terrorism By Orinda Youth Gang Reported

Sheriff's authorities have received two complaints this week that motorists, especially teenagers, are being forced off roads in and around Orinda and "roughed up" by a gang of youthful intimidators.

The complaintants, one the father of an Acalanes High School student whom he said had been subject to the aggression, the second another teenager, both refused to reveal their names because of fear of retaliation by the gang, a sheriff's officer stated.

THE FIRST REPORT of terrorism came early this week when the Orinda man said his son had been "beat up" on his way home from football practice at Acalanes Tuesday night.

He advised the Sheriff's Substation in Walnut Creek that several Orinda boys had formed a 'gang" and were responsible for the bullying. The man added that the same youths were organized into a "drag race club" which illegally conducted hot rod races at night around Miramonte High School in Orinda.

His son also, the man reported, did not wish to have his name revealed.

The second complaint came Wednesday from a youth who said he had been through essentially the same experience. He also refused to disclose his name.

"We're beginning to believe there really is something to this story of a gang," an officer stated. "Our job is twice as hard," he added, "because no one will give his name or the names of the boys responsible.

"They're all afraid of intimidation or attack, the officer claimed.

Junior Horsemen To Ride Sunday

Resembling a picture of an Old West outing, some 40 young equestrians will gather with their mounts Sunday at 10 a.m. in front of Clark's Market in Rheem Center.

Shortly after, the group will start en masse at a brisk pace on a jaunt to the Lucas Ranch in Hunsacker Canyon.

The event will be the second group ride of the newly-formed Moraga Junior Horsemen's Association. The youngsters, accompained by several adults, will head for the ranch, where they will meet their parents, for an association Family Barbecue.

With Carolyn Thune, president of the association leading the way, C. W. Lance, Henry Boeger, Roy Gessinger and other adults will ride to the ranch with the group.

Baldwin in WC On Wednesday; Record Cited

U. S. Congressman John F. Baldwin of Martinez has announced that he will hold office hours on Wednesday from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. in the Council Chambers at the Walnut Creek City Hall for constituents who desire to discuss Federal problems.

Baldwin stated that it would not be necessary for advance appointments to be made for this purpose as he would endeavor to talk with anyone who calls at the City Hall upon that day.

He further stated that he will be available throughout the fall months at his permanent offices at 344 Virginia Street, Vallejo.

'Staggered' Program Set by Orinda

The Orinda schools will inaugurate a "staggered" reading program for the primary grades this year, Superintendent Joseph L. Sheaff said yesterday.

One-half of each class will start school at the regular time, while the other half will start school approximately one hour later.

The pupils starting at the regular time will be dismissed at the usual time for primary grades. Those children who started at the later hour will be dismissed at the same time as the fourth, fifth and sixth grades.

"THE PURPOSE of this staggered program," Sheaff said, "is that it enables the teacher to have a smaller group to work with for one hour in the morning, and similarly a smaller group to work with for one hour in the afternoon.

"These hours will be devoted to reading. This will enable the teacher to give each child more individual attention.

"The teachers have accepted the program with great enthusiasm, and the district is satisfied that it will be mos advantageous to the pupils involved.

"THE CLASSES have been divided on the basis of the bus schedule. That is, children who live in certain areas will come at one time, while students in other areas will come at another time.

"In other words, where the children live will be the basis on which groups come at the regular time or one hour later.

"It is expected that some changes will have to be made during the first few days of school. Further, it is quite possible, with our complicated bus schedule, to have made some errors in placing some of the children."

New Code Would Empower Deputies to Cite Motorists

Sheriff Harry A. Brown urged the District Attorney's office to draft an ordinance permitting sheriff's deputies to cite misdemeanor traffic violations as well as felony offenses, according to John Jagard, under sheriff.

This week John Claussen, deputy district attorney, stated that such an ordinance would take two and one half to three months to formulate. A first draft would be ready in approximately 3 weeks.

"IN EFFECT THE new ordinance would mean that deputies would be armed with a citation book and could make arrests for infractions of the law such as speeding, running stop lights and the like. At present they may only apprehend persons committing felony crimes in moving vehicles such as hit run, drunk driving and the like," said Jagard.

"At present there are 34 California Highway Patrolmen watching over the more than 1200 miles of roads in this county. The sheriff's department has a staff of an additional 34 men. The combining of the two forces in traffic control would help ease the overburned enforcement task of the county and furthermore the additional fines brought in by the county would be apportioned to the county rather than to the state. This would more than pay for the program," added Jagard.

If the Board of Supervisors sees fit to pass such an ordinance after it is drafted by the District Attorney's office, many problems such as speeding in residential areas, illegal parking, running of stop signs and drag racing on county roads will soon be curtailed," he continued.

"Not only will the sheriff's deputies be given the power to issue moving citations but they will also be able to act as the eyes and ears of the Highway Patrol. Even though traffic control will be an added burden on the department. The men will become more aware of traffic congestions and be able to report prevailing conditions to the Highway Patrol, Jagard said.

CLAUSSEN TOLD Jagard the entire process of compiling the new traffic ordinance would be extremely complicated and would entail a great deal of study on the part of the DA's office. All county ordinances must also comply with the California State Motor Vehicle Code, Claussen added.

"The department has had many complaints asserting there just isn't enough patroling of residential streets especially at the rush hours. We, along with the California Highway Patrol, are the first to realize this condition. If the ordinance is drawn up and passed by the supervisors this problem will be brought at least partially under control," he explained.

WHEN ASKED by The Sun why such an ordinance had not been drawn up in the past, Jagard answered. "Perhaps it was because there wasn't a man in the office of sheriff with enough foresight and inititive to plan and carry out the idea of such an ordinance.

"If a county every needed such an ordinance in this state it could not have need it any worse than Contra Costa County does at the present time." he concluded.

Directors Spur City Vote Drive

At a brief meeting in the Orinda School auditorium, the Orinda Association board Monday night took steps to speed the drive for signatures on petitions asking that the Board of Supervisors schedule an election on Orinda incorporation.

At the suggestion of Paul Pollaczek, chairman of the association's incorporation committee, the directors agreed that concerted effort be made to have all sections of Orinda covered in the petition drive.

The board also authorized President Mel Arighi and Secretary Claire Ward to sign an incorporation-election petition on behalf of the association as owner of the Orinda Community Center land.

Needed are signatures of at least 25 per cent of the landowners in the proposed city, representing at least 25 per cent of the assessed valuation of the land in the proposed city, unimproved.

"We are preparing to go out and complete the drive after Labor Day," Pollaczek said.

Orders for the League of Women Voters' brief explanation of California's November ballot are now being taken, according to Mrs. James Worley, League voter service chairman.

Organizations and individuals may place their orders with Mrs. Worley at MU 2-1317.

League registrars are now available for registering eligible voters at the Concord and Walnut Creek city halls and the PX store in Pleasant Hill on Fridays from 7 to 9 p.m. and Saturdays from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Franchise Asked For Lafayette-Orinda Bus Line

A Berkeley transportation company has filed an application with the State Public Utilities commission asking for a franchise to operate a local bus service between Lafayette and Orinda.

Route proposed for the service by the Sequoia Stages would be from Lafayette south to St. Mary's College to a terminal at Orinda Village.

Using two buses, the company would operate four schedules each way daily except Saturdays and Sundays. The route proposed is 9.8 miles, and the maximum fare would be 20 cents per passenger.

Family Rescues Woman from Fire

F. E. Ready, 33 Don Gabriel, Orinda, and his two sons returned from a drive Monday night to find their home ablaze and Mrs. Ready asleep in a bedroom which was threatened by flames.

BREAKING WINDOWS to gain access to the bedroom, Ready and his sons William, 17, and Robert, 15, managed to help Mrs. Ready to safety. The three were aided by a neighbor, W. H. Humble.

When the fire, which broke out about 9 p.m., was brought under control one half hour later, an estimated $10,000 damage had been done to the house. Orinda firemen, led by Chief Everett Wyatt, spent the next several hours digging the last smouldering embers from beneath the living room floor.

Ready and his sons were driving around the countryside in search of possible dove hunting grounds when the fire broke out.

THE FIRE WAS attributed to an exploding furnace. Wyatt said furnace gases probably collected in the air duct that traversed the length of the dwelling's living room and exploded, starting the fire.

The explosion cut a two foot wide trench across the entire width of the living room before the fire was controlled.

Ready is vice president and manager of the Oakland branch of the Bank of America.

Gracelands Area Pushes WC Annexation Study

Committees to study government and city services offered by the City of Walnut Creek were formed by the Gracelands Improvement Association at its quarterly meeting August 23.

Annexation Study Committee Chairman is Ralph Becker, planning and zonning committee chairman of the Pleasant Hill Civic Council. Becker will study planning and zoning ordinances of Walnut Creek and how those ordinances would effect the Gracelands area of Pleasant Hill were it to annex to Walnut Creek.

JACQUES R. Weldon will compile information on police protection which would be afforded by the City of Walnut Creek.

David Dayton will investigate the water situation and plans of the East Bay Municipal Utility District in the Gracelands area which is bounded by Geary Road on the south, Putnam Boulevard to the east, Pleasant Hill Road on the west and Oak Park Boulevard on the north. Assisting Dayton on the water question will be Bill Worden.

Schools and recreational services will be investigated by Robert Soder. Committeemen for the roads and highways unit and city representation have not as yet been named by Becker.

"IT IS OF utmost importance that we find out exactly what the residents of Gracelands feel about annexing to the City of Walnut Creek." said Otto Strobel, association president.

"In the past many of the persons we contacted were only interested in annexing to Walnut Creek because of the so called prestige in the name or just thought it would be a good idea," said Becker.

"There is a great deal more to be considered than the sound of the name. Each and every resident may be faced with an additional tax bill of $35 and not derive one single benefit from it. In recent annexations only small portions of the registered voters have turned out to vote. In this area we will do our best to inform each person and then if a vote ever does come up we will know that everyone, or at least the majority, understood and wished annexation," he continued.

"WE WILL set up precincts throughout the Gracelands area and inform individual home owners of our progress in our studies. One of the great problems in such a study is a matter of communication with all the people. We are depending on word of mouth and the press to get the information out as it is compiled," Becker stated.

"Our next meeting is October 18, at that time we will have reports on the committees findings. We hope to be able to take a stand as an improvement association to go on record either pro or con to annexation to Walnut Creek", said Strobel.

Strobel urged Gracelands residents to call him at YE 4-3574 or Becker YE 4-4365 or Allan Goodban, YE 5-1885 and express personal feelings on annexation.

Observers at the August 23 meeting which was attended by 30 persons at the Pleasant Hill Recreation Center stated there seemed a feeling in the crowd against annexation at this time, but that all were in agreement that a study should be undertaken.

Summer Still Reigns, But Autumn is Sneaking onto Weather Scene

Autumn is poking his colorful head into the weather picture this week.

Though not quite able to usurp the reign of Old Man Summer, he nevertheless is insidiously working his way on the scene, causing temperatures to drop slightly and giving indications of things to come when he gains full power.

The general picture locally found the week starting with a blaze of glory, but that blaze became a mere ember of late as clouds and chilly winds prvailed.

No rain fell, but the weatherman warns that at this time of the year, "anything can happen."

Following are the thermometer readings for local communities this week:

US Funds Speed By-Pass Plans

Bob Crosby, Famed Movie Star, To Play Festival

Bob Crosby, the topflight television and radio star, his musicians and entertainers, will provide a full two-hour show on the nights of September 21-22, during the Walnutt Festival, Rowland Barrett, Festival Association president, announced today.

Barrett declared that this is "the biggest show ever to play in Walnut Creek, and a fitting highlight for our celebration, September 20 to 23."

The grounds committee has already set the stage for Crosby by planning a large outdoor ampitheater which will comfortably seat over three thousand spectators.

A SPOT-LIGHTED stage with scenery backdrops will be erected over homeplate at the Walnut park.

The infield will be set up to hold three thousand comfortable chairs for the audience. The complete open air theater will be equipped with hi-fidelity sound and enclosed by a 10-foot high canvas fence.

"This is the first time in the history of our Walnut Festivals that a Festival board has ever attempted to stage a show of such magnitude," said Barrett.

"We have more or less relied in the past on staging a Welnut Festival with major emphasis on kid attractions. This year we ont only felt that the adults should be given a break but that our Walnut Festival should be big and attractive enough to draw on more than just local patronage.

"USING A BIG name star such as Bob Crosby to headline a professionally produced musical show we feel is a step in the right direction toward creating additional widespread publicity to our festival."

In anticipation of the big demand for tickets to the Bob Crosby outdoor show, the Walnut Festival Association plans to have reserved seat tickets sold at Reilly's Music Shop, 1521 Main Street; Ted Gurney's Studio, 1602 Locust, and the Walnut Creek Chamber of Commerce, 1640 Main Street.

Tickets to the Bob Crosby show will officially go on sale Tuesday at 9 a.m.

THE FESTIVAL BOARD feels certain that in signing Bob Crosby as this year's featured attraction, plus the support of one of the most comprehensive and well-planned four-day Walnut Festivals ever held in Contra Costa County, he should act as a magnet in attracting thousands of additional people to Walnut Creek from its neighboring communities.

The opening night, September 20, will be a big red-letter night for nine lovely Walnut Creek area girls trying out for the privilege of becoming the official Walnut Festival queen.

Selection of the Walnut Festival queen and her two attendants will be made during a huge fashion show held in the Walnut Creek Recerational Center building.

The Festival Queen will be selected by popular vote of the attending fashion show audience. The two runners-up will be chosen as the Queen's attendants.

IN ADDITION to valuable prizes awarded the winners, the three girls selected will reign supreme over the four-day Walnut Festival and be given an on-stage appearance with the Bob Crosby show.

The Walnut Festival Queen contestants will model the latest creations in beach, sports and formal wear during the opening night fashion show.

For the next three weeks until Festival time, the nine lovely Walnut Festival Queen contestants will be kept busy as good-will ambassadorettes spreading the festival dates and all its attractions to service clubs and civic groups throughout the Bay Area.

$50,000 Suit Filed Against Kaiser Hospital

A $50,000 malpractice suit was filed in Superior Court last week by Mrs. Robert Condon of Boulevard Way, Walnut Creek, against the Walnut Creek Kaiser Hospital, and two physicians of the hospital.

The complaint alleges that "negligence and carelessness" before, during and after a delicate operation by Doctors Harry J. Misch and A. A. Linder have resulted in "severe shock to the nervous system and permanent injury."

In her complaint, Mrs. Condon said she was admitted to the hospital on September 14, 1955.

Mrs. Condon is the wife of a former Congressman of the 10th District.

Attorney for Mrs. Condon is Jack H. Werchick of San Francisco.

Alamo 'City' Borders Are Defined

The County Boundary Commission on Tuesday defined the tentative borders of the "City of Alamo," the goal towards which the Incorporation Committee of the Alamo Improvement Association for months has been working.

Petitions will be circulated soon. If signed by 25 per cent of the registered voters in the area, owning at least 25 per cent of the assessed properties, they will be taken to the County Planning Commission for hearings.

There are about 3900 persons in the area, described as following the Alamo School District, minus Tice Valley land.

Don Hardie, president of the Alamo Association, said today that incorporation can take place in a "remarkably short time" though the matter will not get on the November 6 general election ballot.

It is possible that the voting may take place shortly after the general elections, he added.

The Association members have been proceeding on the basis of a report by Kroeger and Associates of San Francisco, which said that incorporation is feasible.

Retention of the residential character of Alamo was earlier given as the reason for incorporation.

Shotgun Blasts Rip Police Car In PH Scramble

After blasting a sheriff's car three times with a shotgun and holding off police for two hours, Richard Johnson, 38, 140 Mayhew Way, Pleasant Hill, was apprehended by sheriff's deputies, Concord and Walnut Creek officers early yesterday morning.

Johnson was arraigned that afternoon in Martinez on charges of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder and placed under observation in county hospital. Bail was set at $5000.

COMPLAINT AGAINST Johnson was signed by Detective Lee Gallamore of the Walnut Creek substation and filed by Rudd Fellar, deputy district attorney.

A disturbance was first brought to the attention of deputies at 11:45 Wednesday night by Mrs. Adolph Johnson, mother of the prisoner. She said that her son had threatened to kill her and her husband.

Deputies Bill Faulkner and Bill McAndrews arrived at the house and were fired upon by Johnson, according to Norman Wilson, inspector at the Walnut Creek substation.

The blasts from the shot gun ripped through the windshield, car door and rear window. The officers ducked down under the dashboard and summoned additional aid.

Answering their plea were the chief of Concord police and three officers, Sgt. Frank Thompson and three officers from Walnut Creek police and 10 deputies, including Wilson.

The officers surrounded the house and used a loud speaker to coax Johnson out of the house. Lights from police cars were played on the house to illuminate the house and Walnut grove surrounding the property, said Wilson.

AFTER TWO HOURS tear gas was used. Johnson appeared at the door unarmed.

Officers entered the house after firemen from the Pleasant Hill station of central fire ditsrict had entered with gas masks to check the home for fumes and possible fire.

The officers confiscated the shotgun and a high powered rifle, according to Wilson.

Johnson had been a patient at a state mental institution and is on leave from a state mental institution, said Fellar.

Asked why he did not answer police orders to vacate the house, Johnson answered "I just wanted them to wait awhile," Fellar stated.

JOHNSON HAS a record of several encounters with sheriff's men on charges of non-support of a minor, continued Fellar.

If Johnson is found to be insane at the time of the incident by examiners, he most probably will be returned to the state institution.

If he is found sane and guilty by a jury the maximum penalty would be from 1 to 14 years imprisonment in a state penitentiary, Fellar explained.

"It was an act of providence that someone didn't get killed or seriously injured during the incident," Wilson said.

$2½ Million Will Buy Road Rights

By JULIUS ROSENTHAL

Preparations for construction of the north and south legs of the Walnut Creek By-Pass received new impetus this week as the result of an additional $2,574,000 in 1956-57 right-of-way funds for Diablo Freeway.

This amount is part of a $4,406,000 addition to state highway right-of-way funds for Contra Costa County, made possible by federal aid money.

Cliff Birnie, senior highway engineer in Assistant State Highway Engineer B. W. Booker's office, explained that the extra $4,406,000 is in addition to $2,225,000 for Contra Costa right-of-way acquisition in the original 1956-57 budget of the California Highway Commission.

THE $4,406,000 is part of $63,545,000 made available to the state by the accelerated federal program for interstate highways, recently voted by Congress.

Of the $63,545,000, $47,245,000 is for state highway right-of-way acquisition, while $16,300,000 is for construction.

The entire extra sum for Contra Costa, as determined by the California Highway Commission, is for right-of-way acquisition, Birnie said.

MAJOR EXPENDITURE in Contra Costa, out of the $4,406,000, will be as follows, according to Birnie:

1. $1,294,000 for rights-of-way for the north leg of the Walnut Creek By-Pass, starting from east of the Pleasant Hill Road Interchange.

2. $1,280,000 for rights-of-way for the south leg of the Walnut Creek By-Pass — a connection from the Oakland Boulevard-Mt. Diablo Boulevard intersection to the Danville Highway (State Route 21) just south of Kaiser Foundation Hospital. This south leg would cross Newell Avenue and Circle Creek Drive.

"ACTUALLY, state funds had previously been going into interstate projects in this state, so the new federal money—for the stepped-up interstate highway program—releases those state funds for our own purposes, such as the Walnut Creek By-Pass projects," Birnie said.

He said that the plans of the State Division of Highways to purchase rights-of-way along both by-pass routes are based on definite anticipation that the Highway Commission will budget construction funds for the Walnut Creek By-Pass for the 1957-58 fiscal year.

"The 1957-58 budget will be adopted by the commission this fall," Birnie said. "This may be done at the September or the October meeting of the commission."

THE NEW FEDERAL program was further described by Birnie as follows:

"Since 1954 California has been getting approximately $40 million a year in federal aid for state highways.

"Now, for the 1956-57 fiscal year the federal aid money to California will be about $104 million. For 1957-58 it is expected to be about $135 million, and for 1958-59 it is expected to be about $152 million.

"THE APPORTIONMENT to the states for these first three years are being based on the traditional factors of area, population and mileage of certain postal routes.

"For the following 10 years after that, the apportionments will be based on deficiencies in the interstate system itself.

"Since in California we have great distances and heavy urbanization, our deficiencies will be large—so we can expect increasing federal funds after the first three years of the new federal program."

Civic Council, P&Z Group Meet with County Planners

The Executive Board of the Pleasant Hill Civic Council along with its Planning and Zoning Committee met Monday evening with the County Planning Staff in Martinez to discuss various zoning problems.

The East of 21 area was discussed and it was tentatively agreed that it would be desirable to zone this area for multiple residence or possibly garden apartments.

The group agreed that the area west of the Pleasant Hill Bypass should remain one half acre lots.

The Civic Council presented its recommendation on the Gardner rezoning on Oak Park Boulevard. At the last Civic Council meeting the council went on record as opposing the rezoning for a proposed service station on the southwest corner of Oak Park Boulevard and Pleasant Valley Drive but declared that they would not oppose rezoning for a service station on the northwest corner of the same intersection. The county staff was in agreement with this recommendation.

The Pleasant Hill Civic Council expressed its appreciation for the cooperation that the staff has given the council in the past.

Representing the Civic Council at the meeting were Tom Shreve and Pete Massola of the executive board and Ralph Becker, Thane Clark, Doug Abernathy and Hester Hoffman.

Present from the County Planning Staff were H. Russell Griffith, pincipal planner; Tony DeJesus, associate planner, and Ed Radosavitch, associate planner. Also present was Ray Taylor, supervisor.

Signups for Big Election Have Sept. 13 Deadline

There are 48 authorized registration places in the central county where residents may qualify to vote in the November 6 elections, if they act on or before September 13, according to County Clerk Walter T. Paasch.

This includes 18 in Walnut Creek, 2 in Saranap, 5 in Alamo, 9 in Lafayette, 4 in Moraga, 8 in Orinda, 1 in Canyon and 1 at St. Mary's.

Ballots will be cast in November for U.S. president, U.S. vice-president, U.S. senator and congressman, state senator and assemblyman from the 10th district, supervisor in the second and fifth districts, and others.

PAASCH SAID that residents who failed to vote in either of the two statewide eelctions in 1954 must re-register.

Persons who have moved since their last registration are also required to re-register.

If a voter's name is changed either by marriage or by court order, re-registration is also necessary.

Would-be voters who turn 21 years of age on or before the November 6 general election may register but must do so by the September 13 deadline.

Newcomers to the county may sign up if they have been a California resident for one year, and a resident of the county on or before August 9, which is 90 days prior to the general election, Paasch said.

ANYONE WHO becomes a U.S. citizen on or before August 8 and fulfills the other residence requirements is also eligible to register.

Registration as a voter can be accomplished in the County Clerk's office in Martinez or Richmond or with any of the nearly 300 registration locations throughout the county.

Some misunderstanding has developed by residents who did not vote in June of this year. If the voter's residence is the same as his last registration there is no necessity to complete a new affidavit as many are doing, Paasch explained.

Registration of over 10,000 voters is necessary for the county to reach its all-time peak of 158,667 for the 1954 general election.

REGISTRATION at the Walnut Creek city hall is on Friday evenings at 7 to 9, and Saturdays from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Registration deputies in the area taking signups are as follows:

In this issue of The Sun you will find, in addition to news of our own community, considerable news of our neighboring communities.

This more-than-usual news of neighboring communities is offered as an experiment this week. The idea is to present, as always, the important news of our own community, but also to attempt to inform you about events and people nearby.

Many readers have expressed a desire to know more about what is happening elsewhere in Central Contra Costa County.

We would like to know your reaction to this experiment. What do you think of this week's Sun?

Big Coat is Shoplift Cue

A heavy plaid coat carried on a warm day betrayed Mrs. Archie Jensen, 44, of Superior, Mich., August 22, and she and her husband were each fined $5 for shoplifting at the Lucky Store, Broadway Shopping Center.

Store managers saw Mrs. Jensen enter the store about 4:25 in the afternoon with the large coat over her arm, and they told the Danville Court that she slipped a fifth of Scotch and a fifth of whiskey into its pockets.

Her husband was seen, they said, putting a pint of whiskey into his jacket.

Both were stopped in the parking lot outside, without having paid for the liquor. After pleading guilty they told the judge they were on vacation, and were staying with a friend in Pittsburg.

Larkey Man is 'Bunko' Victim

Suspecting that he was the victim of a "bunko" plot, John Bray of 2516 Larkey Lane, Walnut Creek on August 23, called local police to complain of a defective roofing job for which his wife signed a $67.50 check.

Bray said that a pickup truck, with a Bellflower, Calif., license, drove up to his house that morning, and a man offered to spray the roof, sealing it from inclement weather.

However, much of the roof was missed, Bray said, and much of the grass and shrubs were covered with oil, causing damage.

Police are looking for the alleged "bunko" artist.

EBMUD to Make Service Studies

East Bay Municipal Utility District has agreed to undertake studies in the near future towards the extension of service to areas annexed to Walnut Creek in the past four years.

The decision came out of a conference held with Walnut Creek officials August 23, where it was explained that the EBMUD reports were necessary before the residents can proceed with purchase of the California Water Service facilities now being used, or creation of their own systems.

The conference was called after city councilmen determined to hasten the process, delayed since EBMUD converted the old Walnut Creek water system in 1953.

Dog Bite Cases On Increase

Five dog bite cases in Walnut Creek have been reported to the police department since August 23, records show.

This is an unusually high number for such a short span of time, said officers.

The victims were the following: Frank Baum of 294 Cameo Drive, Chris Bernhus of 1810 Almond, Cynthia Young of 9 Sheldon Court, Eric Larson, and Ronald Walters of 1909 Sharp Avenue.

Walnut Boulevard Annexation Up

A hearing will be held Wednesday night by the Walnut Creek city council for protestors to annexation the Walnut Boulevard annexation.

The annexation has already been approved by the City Planning Commission.

The area concerned is generally east of the Southern Pacific Railroad tracks, west of Homestead Avenue, south of Ygnacio Avenue, and north of Walker Avenue.

Letters, Cards Help Pass Time

The 10 year old sister of a Pleasant Hill family would be made happy by receiving cards and letters during her six weeks stay in the hospital where she is undergoing her third operation for elephantiasis.

Patricia Carney, sister of Mrs. Eric Raynor of 242 Valley Drive, Pleasant Hill, has been undergoing the series of surgery at the Shrine Hospital in Honolulu. She was at the hospital for long stretches of time, "and receiving cards or letters makes the days not quite so long," Mrs. Raynor said.

Patricia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Carney of Honolulu.

Gets One Year

A year in the county jail was the superior court sentence for James B. Stokes, 46, of Oakland, who pleaded guilty to striking Edward Davies, 21, of Alamo with a shovel, after an argument.

Stokes had been charged with assault with a deadly weapon.

Executive Board To Plan Agenda For Civic Council

The Executive Board and committee chairmen of the Pleasant Hill Civic Council will hold their monthly meeting Thursday at the home of Council Vice President Ivan Gilman, 136 Doray Drive 8 p.m.

The agenda of the Civic Council meeting of September 17 will be under discussion.

FROM ELVIS TO ELOCUTION is the transition anticipated by Miss Shirley Gracey, an area young lady, as she inspects a blouse which may be worn next week, when high school opens for the fall term.

GLAD I DON'T HAVE TO GO!—says pre-grader Geoffrey Linnell, as he clings gratefully to his father, Peter Linnell. Geoffrey's seen the apprehensive looks on faces of older playmates, who are getting ready for "School Days" beginning next week.

I'M GOIN' STRAIGHT! Eddie Sollis confides to Alan Gerdes, when the latter, armed with six guns, asks why the big books. Next week is back to the classrooms for Eddie, and he is going to try to persuade his pal to join him.

THEY ARE THE LATEST! exclaims Tom Shreve, comparing some of his "back to school" garments with those of Roger Norton, left, and Eddie Sollis. Those shoes and Levi's worn during a rugged summer are a little the worse for wear, and will disappear into the closet next week.

It's Back to School Next Week . . .

Acalanes District Schools Open Wed., MDUSD Tues.

It's "back to school" for students in central Contra Costa County next week.

First to go will be those enrolled in Pleasant Hill High School, and elementary and intermediate schools in Pleasant Hill, which begin sessions Tuesday morning. All are within the Mt. Diablo Unified District.

ON WEDNESDAY morning, teachers and administrators will be waiting for pupils in the Acalanes High School District, including Las Lomas, Acalanes and Miramonte High Schools.

Ditto for the younger boys and girls in the Walnut Creek, Lafayette, Orinda, Moraga and Canyon School Districts. These contain some 20 schools.

Starting classes on Wednesday in some local districts is a departure from a tradition. In the past, the fall term has begun almost everywhere just after Monday Labor Day.

THROUGHOUT the county, about 88,000 students will begin studies. Construction has added about 150 new classrooms since spring, according to County Superintendent B. O. Wilson.

He said that there has been an overall reduction of double sessions, but still about 8000 will attend for half days.

Here is the situation in your area:

Acalanes Dist.

Approximately 2700 students are expected to start the new school year at the three high schools in the Acalanes High School District.

The estimate is by Stanley Walgren, principal of Acalanes High School, Lafayette, where some 1200 students are expected to enroll.

At Las Lomas High School, Walnut Creek, approximately 1100 students are expected.

At Miramonte High School, Orinda, some 400 students are expected. Miramonte, which first opened last year, will have freshmen and sophomores from Orinda this year.

THE ANTICIPATED 2700 enrollment for the high schol district will be a new record, as will be the individual enrollment for each of the three schools.

Acalanes High School will have Lafayete freshmen, sophomores, juniors and seniors and Orinda juniors and seniors. Las Lomas will have Walnut Creek freshmen, sophomores, juniors and seniors.

Orientation programs for freshman students will be held today at all three high schools — from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at Miramonte, from 2 to 5 p.m. at Acalanes, and from 2 to 5 p.m. at Las Lomas.

(A press release from the Acalanes District news service last week erroneously stated the orientation program for Acalanes freshmen would be yesterday.)

DISTRICT Superintendent Neil Parsons and his staff are busy with preparations for the start of the new school year, with Principals Leland Russell of Las Lomas and James Lewis of Miramonte joining Principal Walgren of Acalanes in smoothing out many details.

New teachers conferred with district personnel Wednesday, took a bus tour of the district and attended meetings at their respective schools.

Last Tuesday all district teachers met at the Acalanes cafeteria in the morning, and attended faculty sessions in the afternoon at the different high schools.

Today Las Lomas and Acalanes High Schools will also hold meetings of their faculties.

A district workshop for teachers will be held Tuesday morning, followed by faculty meetings that afternoon at the separate schools.

Walnut Creek

The doors will swing back Wednesday morning ending summer vacation in the six grade schools in the Walnut Creek School District, admitting some 4000 pupils, an increase of about 300 over last year.

District Superintendent Sheldon Rankin said today that double sessions will continue, through the second grade in some schools, and the third in others, on about the same basis as last year.

...THERE WILL BE about 40 new teachers, and a total of about 130 teachers and administrators, perhaps a dozen more than last year.

"We will have a particularly fine staff, and look forward to another big year," commented Rankin.

Transportation facilities have been enlarged to 130 separate bus routes, with some 700 miles traced.

Here are the hours on Tuesday when the doors will be open:

Murwood, 9 to 11 a.m., 12:30 to 3; Parkmead, lower, 8:30 to 11, 12 to 2:30; Parkmead upper, 8:30 to 2:30; Buena Vista, 9 to 11:30 a.m., 12:30 to 3 p.m.; Walnut Heights, 9 to 11:30 a.m., 12:30 to 3 p.m.; Walnut Creek, 8:30 to 11, 12 to 2:30 p.m.

Hours of classes on each level will often vary from these times.

Lafayette

Superintendent of Schools W. B. Ellis said yesterday that a record enrollment of approximately 3530 is expected in the six schools of the Lafayette School District. Last year's enrollment was about 3295.

The faculties at the Stanley, Lafayette, Vallecito, Montecito, Burton and Springhill Schools will include some 35 new teachers. Some of these new teachers are replacements of teachers who have left the district's employ, while others are additions to the instruction staff.

Cafeterias at Lafayette and Stanley Schools will be in operation on Wednesday, the first day of the new term.

Stanley School is the school for all seventh and eighth graders in the Lafayette School District.

ELLIS REITERATED yesterday that any students new to the district who have not registered before next Wednesday will not be accepted at school on Wednesday, the opening day. Such new students will have to wait until Thursday to enter school.

This week has been one of preparation and orientation for the district teachers.

New teachers gathered at Stanley School cafeteria for an all-day session Monday. They were addressed by Ellis.

On Tuesday the new teachers met at their own schools and conferred with the respective principals.

ON WEDNESDAY all teachers of the district met at the Stanley School cafeteria for the entire day. Ellis talked to them. Guest speaker was Dr. Harold Bryant of Orinda, former manager of the Grand Canyon National Park, whose topic was "Serendipity."

Dr. Bryant defined "serendipity" as "finding unanticipated values," and he related this concept to the profession of education.

Yesterday all the teachers gathered at their respective schools, and they will do so again today.

Wednesday evening, a picnic was given the Lafayette Teachers Association for all certificated personnel of the district, at Little Hills Ranch on Crow Canyon Road.

Canyon

About 20 students are expected at the Canyon School for the school year starting next Wednesday, according to Roy Bagley, the new principal. Last year's enrollment was 28.

Bagley will teach fifth through eighth grades. He replaces Walter N. Hambleton Jr., who has been teaching principal the past two years and who will now teach eighth grade at the Walnut Creek School on Walnut Boulevard, Walnut Creek.

Mrs. Rubyruth Beers will continue as first through fourth grade teacher at Canyon School.

Bagley, 30, a Navy veteran of World War II and the Korean confict, lives with his wife, Beverly and their three young children in Concord. He received his B.A. degree this summer at Sacramento State College, where he majored in social science.

Moraga

With Charles E. Toll, seventh and eighth grade teacher, as the new principal, Moraga School student enrollment is expected to be about 100 for the school year starting next Wednesday, a sizeabel increase over last year's 71.

Toll replaces Mrs. Alberta Hauskens as principal; he taught seventh and eighth grades last year, and will continue to do so this year. The other three teachers are new—Mrs. Ruth Larson, first and second grades; Mrs. Mercedes Rossol, third and fourth grades, and Mrs. Eleanor Lethan, fifth and sixth grades.

Registration will be conducted Tuesday, 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 2:30 p.m.

Orinda

An enrollment increase of nearly 10 per cent—from last June's 2240 to approximately 2440 — is anticipated for the Orinda School District, according to Superintendent of Schools Joseph L. Sheaff.

On hand to instruct the record number of youngsters at the five grammar schools will be 72 teachers—also a record number, nine more than last year's 63. Of the 72 teachers, 10 are replacements for teachers who have left the district employ since June.

During this past week the Orinda Union School District held a comprehensive orientation program for the teachers in the district. Teachers who have taught in the district before, as well as those who will be new to the district this year, took part in the program.

General sessions were held with the new teachers on Monday, and with all teachers and administrative personnel on Tuesday.

Grade level meetings were held to present new teachers with the curriculum and procedure in the various grades, as well as to have all the teachers of the various grade levels become better acquainted with each other.

INDIVIDUAL FACULTY meetings were held yesterday. During the week the classrooms have been open to enable the teachers to get their rooms ready for the children.

Edith Erickson, president of the Orinda Mothers Club, was presented to the teachers at the Tuesday morning meeting. She gave a brief outline of the objectives of the Mothers Club.

New teachers were guests of the Orinda Teachers' Organization at a picnic held at Turtle Rock. Jack Clark, O.T.O. president, welcomed the new teachers.

POSTCARDS were mailed this week to all the pupils who have registered for the fall term, The card notifies each pupil of his grade, school room number. Those students who attended school last year do not have to register.

Registration has been going on all summer and will continue through Tuesday. Children who have not registered by Tuesday will not be able to enter school on the first day, Wednesday. These children will have to wait until Thursday to start attending school.

Some 80 children have been transferred from Glorietta School to Del Rey School. This transfer was made necessary because of the classroom shortage at Glorietta, Sheaff explained. Most of the children transferred live in the Orchard Road and Moraga Highway area.

Even with the transfer of these pupils Sheaff said, it was necessary to limit the Glorietta School classes to kindergarten through fifth grade. The same situation exists at Sleepy Hollow School, where the grades are also from ikndergarten through fifth.

Important PHIS Students' Notice

Students attending Pleasant Hill Intermediate School should be at the bus stop nearest their home by 8 a.m. for the first few days of school, or until such time as the bus schedules have been adjusted. School will be in session from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m.

Pleasant Hill

All Pleasant Hill schools of the Mt. Diablo Unified School District will commence Tuesday, according to James Dent, superintendent of schools.

Pleasant Hill High School, Pleasant Hill Intermediate, Oak Park Elementary, Gregory Gardens, Strandwood, Fair Oaks, Diablo Vista and Pleasant Hill Elementary are listed as Pleasant Hill Schools of the District. This year all district schools will commence on the same day.

Pre-school registration for new pupils in the district was held durinug the past week.

Double sessions in the Pleasant Hill portion of the district have been cut considerably. There will be no double sessions at Oak Park Elementary and Pleasant Hill Elementary.

With the opening of the new school year at Pleasant Hill High will come a marked increase in student population and the addition of 25 new faculty members.

Over 80 additional personnel have added to the rolls of employees in Pleasant Hill Schools by MDUSD.

Tallies of last spring's pre registration indicate that opening day enrollment at the high school will include approximately 1300 students, an increase of 250 over last year. These figures do not include the registration of new and transfer students this week. The incoming fresman class will number well over 400 students.

A marked increase in attendance at the Pleasant Hill Elementary schools will also be seen this year. At present the eighth grade is the largest in school history.

Lower grades in all elementary schools are expected to be of record size also, according to school district trustee reports.

Bus schedules and other information regarding the opening of schools has been distributed by the school district administration in Concord and the individual schools through the mails.

Church Group To Hear Author

The first meeting of the season for the Women's Auxiliary of St. Stephen's Church will take place Wednesday at noon at the undercroft of the church, 12 Via Las Crusas, Orinda.

Speaker for the day will be Dr. George Hedly, chaplain of Mills College, Oakland. Dr. Hedly is the author of, among other books, "Reconsiderations: A Series of Sermons," "Religion on the campus," and "The American Heritage."

His latest book, "The Minister Behind the Scene," which he wrote after participating in a six-man lecture series at Duke University last year, was published recently.

Dr. Hedly is also chairman of the Deparment of Sociology and Economics at Mills College.

Meetings of the auxiliary will be held the first Wednesday of each month at noon in the undercroft. Refreshments will be served at all meetings, followed by a well-known speaker.

This will be followed by a short business meeting, conducted by Mrs. A.D. Henry, auxiliary president.

State Aid Needed for Classroom Construction

Local funds will not be sufficient to provide new classrooms for about 2900 high school and grade students in central Contra Costa County, and school districts will request state loans to meet this shortage, according to current studies.

A report from Assistant County Superintendent Harold De Fraga's office said that loans will also be asked to finance classroom construction for some 9000 other students in the entire county.

A SURVEY made for the State Department of Education shows the districts anticipate they will need classroom space beyond that which can be financed locally because of sustained increases in enrollment, the report said.

Growth continues to center in the Central Contra Costa Conuty and Pinole-Sheldon areas.

"Mt. Diablo Unified District alone anticipates that it will need classroom space for 3000 high school students over and above what can be financed with local bond funds. At the elementary level the district needs classroom space for another 300 students," it stated.

High schools, he commented, are beginning to expand as have the elementary schools to accommodate the growing number of students resulting from the increased birthrate during World War II. Pleasant Hill High is in the Mt .Diablo District.

ALONG WITH MT. Diablo, two other high schools plan to request state loan funds, Acaalnes Union High School District for site acquisition only and San Rramon Valley Union High School District to house an estimated 650.

Elementary districts and the number of students they anticipate will require housing beyond that possible with local funds include the following: Alamo, 300; Lafayette, 600; Moraga , 600; Orinda Union, 600, and Walnut Creek, 800.

By state law school district bonds to finance construction are restricted to 5 per cent of the district's assessed valuation. School districts bonded to capacity and with additional students to house are eligible to borrow from the state fund.

Larindans Win Cups in Oakland

In keeping with the summer program of exchange meetings, the Larinda Toastmasters on August 20 enjoyed an evening as guests of the Merrit chapter at the Lakehurst Hotel, Oakland.

Host President Bob Lewis presented a light and humorous program. Toastmaster George Melchonian introduced Ian Begg, who acted as Table Topics master. Table Topics are a group of one-minute tmpromptu talks, with the participants chosen at random.

Ian dealt out political campaign assignments. Cup for the best campaign introduction was taken home by "Dunc" Duncan of Larinda for his mimic talk by Senator Claghorn. In a foggy voice, worn by five days of convention, Senator Claghorn introduced his nominee.

PARTICIPANTS in the major 5 to 10 minute talks were Bill Veale and Sam Shimmons of Merrit and Forrest Bryant and Ed Riksheim of Larinda.

Ed won the speaker's cup with his clever description of how he discouraged gophers from becoming star boarders on his property.

Due to summer transfers, George Sanko, president of the Larinda group, announces that there are five membership opening available. Anyone interested may phone him at AT 3-8096, or drop in at the regular Monday meeting at Casa Orinda at 6:30 p.m.

SANKO SAYS that many do not realize the function of Toastmasters, but that a brief description would be "a group of men interested in bettering themselves in their ability to talk before others."

Pre-Registration for Part Time Students at JC Told

East Contra Costa Junior College classes for part-time students will begin the second week in September with pre-registration scheduled for Saturday, September 8.

Building 12, located on the Golf Links Road campus near the athletic field, will be open for pre-registration from 10 in the morning until 2 in the afternoon. According to Charles E. Chapman, teacher-coordinator, steps have been taken to cut down the waiting time of prospective students.

There is no tuition and no registration fee. Courses are open to anyone 18 years of age or over whether he has attended or graduated from high school or not. Although all courses offer college credit, the need not be taken with this in mind. Those working toward the Associate in Arts degree — and these are on the increase — are able to fulfill all graduation requirements through part-time study.

Trained counselors are available on an appointment basis to help plan individual program. Appointments may be made by telephone — MU 5-4456 — or in person.

Courses are of 10 and 18 weeks duration, almost all meeting from 7 to 9:40 p.m., once or twice a week.

In the course of the school year, a total of 137 different courses will be offered in the fields of general education, business, technical, occupational, family life education, as well as supervisory training, industrial psychology, fire-training.

Information pamphlets describing the program and the schedule of classes are obtainable now. They list classes in mathematics, psychology, natural science, foreign language, communications, home-making, history, government, sociology, a wide variety of business courses and many others.

According to Membership Chairman Ray Petty, the club is now taking applications for the waiting list. He can be contacted at YE 5-0447.

The community swim club, limited to 175 family members, is located north of Geary Road and east of the Freeway.

Big 'M' Stamps Can Get Over 2000 Premiums

"More for your money" is what the Big "M" Stamp Company and participating merchants offer customers at many stores in Central Contra Costa County and the Bay Area, George B. Hickox, general manager at the company's main office at 1670 Locust Street, Walnut Creek, states.

"That's what the 'M' stands for," he explains. "The Big 'M' plan is new to this area andis plan in Northern California. Over 2000 premiums—all gift items which are nationally advertised brands—are offered for stamps which participating stores give to customers in return for purchases."

One stamp is given for each 10 cent purchase. Books in which to place the stamps are obtainable at the participating stores, as are catalogues.

Within the next few weeks the redemption station for Central Contra Costa County, where the gifts will be on display may be obtained in exchange for Big "M" stamps, according to Hickox.

"Also to be opened within 30 days are four other redemption stores—in Richmond, Oakland, Berkeley and Hayward," Hickox adds.

A few of the many stores in stamps are Kings Food Center in this area which offer Big "M" Lafayette and Pleasant Hill, Black's Market in Orinda, Clark's Market at Rheem Center, Moraga, and Super Saver Market in Lafayette.

County alone, we have about 20 new accounts being added daily," Hickox says. "Throughout the Bay Area we have close to 1000 allied accounts, with almost 100 new ones joining the Big "M" program daily."

Hickox reports that Big "M" has 16 salesmen in the Bay Area. "We're going to intensify our efforts, so as to let the housewife know about our program an and our gifts," he says. "She's No. 1 with us."

He asked that persons desiring further information about the Big "M" program phone him at YE 5-4620.

Renewed Drive Begun to $125,000 Library Goal

Renewed efforts by the Orinda Library Building Fund Committee to reach the $125,000 ogal set for a new Orinda library were begun this week, according to General Chairman Perc S. Brown.

Folowing a house-to-house solicitation drive at the beginning of summer, the campaign had waned due to vacations, absences and other summer activities, Brown claimed, but the committee is now gaining new impetus toward reaching the goal.

The chairman claimed that up to date some $65,000 in cash and pledges have been donated to the campaign. He further stated that the cash on hand now totals slightly less than $30,000, of which $25,000 is drawing interest.

"Since we would like to start building the library as early as possible next spring, it is obvious that an additional $60,000 at least has to be raised, preferably in relatively short-term pledges and payments," Brown stated.

ONE OF THE FIRST projects in the renewed drive will be that of the House-to-House Solicitations Committee, under the direction of Mrs. Donald Krotz, which will within the next few weeks, blanket the 500 to 600 homes missed in the solicitations last June.

A magnanimous effort on behalf of the fund drive was revealed by Brown, who stated that "a public-spirited woman of Orinda contributed 15 shares of a certain stock. We of course immediately sold the stock, and the net proceeds to the fund were about $775."

He added that the best way a donor might make a substantial contributions to the fund is by making it in the form of appreciated-in-value securities.

ANOTHER EXAMPLE of generostiy toward public libraries was taken from the experience of the New York City Library by Brown, who said that it reecived a legacy of at least $1 million from the estate of Miss Emma Deane Norris, who had "exressed in her lifetime her admiration of the part public libraries played in education and enlightenment."

One of the big questions of the campaign in the minds of local residents, Brown said, has been the Library Campaign Expense Fund, to which many local service clubs and individuals have contributed.

To clear up any doubts about the Expense Fund, he stated:

"The fund covers the money we have raised separately to cover the bare, unavoidable out-of-pocket expenses of conducting the buiding campaign. So far we have raised approximately $1600 in cash and have spent approximatey $1300," he claimed.

"WE OBVIOUSLY have to raise more money for the fund," he said. "We feel proud of this performance and confidently believe such a low cost of about 2 per cent has never even been approached previously."

"Principal source for this money," he contended, "has been the service clubs of Orinda; the Lions, Rotary and Chamber of Commerce, which responded promptly and graciously to our appeal."

He further disclosed that a second check from the Lions Club for $200 had recently been receivd, placing the Lions at the head of the contribution list.

"Not one cent of the Orinda Library Building Fund," Brown emphasized, "will be used to cover the cost of raising the money. Every cent will go toward the project itself."

"It is our hope," he added, "that various clubs, other than the service clubs, will this fall and winter adopt various organized methods of raising money for the fund."

Parents Will Be Told About Nursery School

The Lafayette Nursery School has set next Thursday and September 11 as the two evenings on which the school's fall orientation meetings for parents will be held.

The first meeting, to take place Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Lafayette Community Church, is designed to acquaint both fathers and mothers with the philosophy and policies of the cooperative nursery school.

Its director, Miss Esther Noland; its assistant director, Mrs. Jean Jonas, and the members of the board will join with the appointed committee chairmen to explain the actual functioning basis of the organization.

The September 11 orientation meeting will be held at 8 p.m. in Room 20 of the Lafayette School. It will be devoted primarily to discussion of the handling of the children in nursery school, clarifying certain problems growing out of relationships among normal children in a group situation and focusing on specific techniques of approaching these problems constructively.

MISS NOLAND will guide the general discussion in which experienced members of the nursery school will take part.

Milnes Tells Of Engineer Office Hours

Walnut Creek City Engineer Larry Milnes announced today that a building inspector will be in the office at City Hall between the hours of 8 to 10 a.m. and 3 to 5 p.m. only, on Monday through Friday.

Field inspections throughout the city will take up the balance of his time.

Plumbing and electrical permits will be issued throughout the day by the secretary of the public works department at the city hall.

Building permit applications will be taken from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., but will continue to be issued by the building inspector.

EUROPEAN STUDENTS, who recently arrived in this area to begin a year of study here, were given a warm welcome last Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lincoln, 1115 Oak Hill Road, Lafayette. One of the three newcomers to the area, Fritz Borst, is staying with the Lincolns. With some 35 future Acalanes High class-mates attending the party, the new students and their American "brothers and sisters" are apparently finding a great deal of pleasure in being with each other. Pictured left to right at the party are: Maria Zorbanou, Greece; Elin Rasmussen, Denmark, and Fritz Borst, Germany, and Carl Lincoln, Peggy Kalbfleisch and Drury Spurlock.

'Round Hill' Zoning Battle Seen in Alamo Subdivision

BY NORMAN COLBY

Girding for a fight against the "Round Hill" subdivision, planned to cover 410 acres in Alamo with 700 new homes in the next five or more years, are members of the Alamo Improvement Association, who last year sucessfully defended the "General Plan" against rezoning attempts in the same area by Philip Heraty.

Details of the new development were filed Tuesday with the County Planning Commission by Harlan Gelderman, for the Chesapeake Company of Berkeley, and the Spott. Electrical Company of Hayward.

The subdivision has been under discussion by the two companies for about a year.

IT CALLS FOR R-A and R-1-B zoning, which allows half acres, but also 15,000 square foot lots, the equivalent of third acres.

The San Ramon Valley Plan approved last fall by both the County Planning Commission and the Board of Supervisors, set the minimum lot sizes at one half acre.

The Planning Commission shortly after, recommended for disapproval a subdivision plan by Philip Heraty of Oakland for 10,000 square foot lots, and Heraty declined to take the matter to the supervisors.

Then, as now, the area of contention, is on the former Squire and Mott-Durham properties on Stone Valley Road.

THE ALAMO Improvement Association was given advance notice of the filing last Sunday night when members attended a conference with Geldermann and L. H. Spott. They presented proposals, altered somewhat from the originals due to objections by the Association in a conference last March.

Afterwards, Association President Don Hardie told the Sun:

"It was the opinion of the directors that the proposed development represented no substantial improvement over that proposed earlier by Mr. Phil Heraty and rejected by the Planning Commission and Supervisors, even though considerably more engineering study was given to the latest plan.

"ENDORSEMENT OF this proposal would constitute a breach of trust on the part of the directors of the Association, to the citizens of Alamo.

"To support quarter acres in one section of this community would foreclose the principle of half-acre lots in other areas of Alamo, and would make meaningless the zoning regulations adopted by the county....

"It should be pointed out that other developers in the Alamo area have abided by the decision of the county officials in land development.

"I CAN SEE no hardship that makes this an exception to me. It is a crying shame that the citizens of Alamo and the taxpayers of this county should be obliged to stand the expense of costly hearings and investigations in order to decide on an application which is clearly in violation of previously legally established development regulations in this area . . . "

Indications were from the Association members that it will be difficult to find any area of agreement between the two sides on a plan which stands to double the number of homes in Alamo in seven years. There are presently about 2500 people in Alamo.

THE FIRST OFFICIAL clash is scheduled for September 18 in the Planning Commission chambers .

The other view was told to the Sun by Geldermann, who described the creation of a modern residental community, complete with a 10-acre school reservation near the center, a 15-acre stable and riding area along the trail to Mount Diablo, a 10-acre recreation area, and the possibility of a putt-and-pitch golf course.

"The homes will be in the $22,000 class, and we are going to try to install underground utilities," he said.

"WE DESIRE TO work with the people in the area to get their support, and would like them to understand the problems of developing property of this size, which deserves definite planning rather than just a minimum lot size restriction.

"As for lot sizes, we plan for averages of from 17,000 to 18,000 square feet.

"By our plans, there will be less than 100 lots under 15,000 square feet, and at least that many will be bigger than a half acre.

"You can't just assume that 20,000 square foot size is a magical number, Contours and topography have much to do with proper density."

"We have spend about $8000 in surveying the area." Geldermann said.

Kids, Adults Have 'Ball' At Lafiesta Round-up

Lafiesta Square Round-up days ended last Saturday, but hundreds of local residents and their children are still carrying fresh memories and new gifts and trophies as mementoes of the gala Western celebration.

The "days" were designed to welcome to the big Lafayette shopping center four new shops and offices: The McTavish Ice Cream Shop, Lafiesta Variety Store, Drapery Lane and the Beneficial Realty Service.

STARTING OFF with a bang on August 23, the entire square emitted an air of the Old West. Store owners and employees alike donned Western garb, and an atmosphere of Western hospitality prevailed.

The younger set came into its own the next day, Friday, as free refreshments were passed out and youthful baseball stars were presented trophies for their accomplishments.

Trophy presentations got under way at 7 p.m., and the winners of the Lafayette Youth Baseball League were honored. Some 150 youngsters were on hand to help honor their chums . . . and also help devour the free cokes, ice cream, sno-cones and peanuts donated by Lafiesta Square merchants.

BUT ACTIVITIES Friday night were not limited to the juveniles. Following the awarding of trophies, which were also donated by the local merchants, their parents began to form their squares and promendaded to the square dance music of Al Carey and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kefauver.

Those judged outstanding dancers (just about all the participants) received merchandise orders from the Lafiesta store owners.

Gathering Saturday morning at the Lafayette Town Hall, some 45 youngsters took great pride in putting on final touches to make their pets ready for the big "Pet Parade."

WITH A WIDE variety of pets on parade, the troup marched smartly from the Town Hall, both owners and pets with heads high, to the square.

Aside from another deluge of free refreshments, each participant in the parade received a pass to the Park Theater. Ribbons and prizes were awarded to the winners.

Largely responsible for the informal three-day celebration were Alicia and Gene Stark of the Greyhound Cafe, chairmen of the arrangement committee.

"Everybody seemed very pleased and happy," was Stark's comment on the Round-up. "There were oodles of kids, but their parents seemed to have just as much fun," he added.

Handling arrangements for the square dancing was Nate Hathorne, while Max Coons was in charge of the Pet Parade.

Master Plan Waiting on SF Conference

With $750,000 available through the sale of bonds, start of Walnut Creeks Little Master Plan for street improvements waits on a conference to be held September 13 in San Francisco.

City officials and officers of the Western Pacific Railway will confer on the possibility of abandonment of the Sacramento Northern Railroad tracks, which run parallel to the planned north-south bypass, the first big job in the Little Master Plan.

If the tracks are abandoned, the bypass can utilize the railroad right-of-way, avoiding the expense of buying other property for rights-of-way.

The bonds were recently purchased by Taylor and Company of Beverly Hills, which has the option to pick up the remaining $1,250,000 in bonds, necessary to float the entire street program.

Tentative Maps For Utah Tracts Get Approval

Tentative maps for two proposed Utah Construction Company subdivisions were approved by the Board of Supervisors Tuesday. Approval was on recommendation by the County Public Works Department.

The proposed subdivisions are:

1. Tract 2508, 24 lots, in the Moraga area—about a quarter of a mile east of Burton School.
2. Tract 2466, 14 lots, immediately northwest of Tract 2508.

Both tracts are in an I-R-A zone (single family residential), with specific lot sizes to be determined later in meetings concerning final maps. According to the Public Works Department, lots in I-R-A zones generally average around 7000 square feet.

The lots in the two proposed tracts average slightly over a quarter-acre, the Public Works Department said.

The play will be directed by Elliott Johnson Jr., the author.

The play has been scheduled for 28 performances throughout the Bay Area during October and November.

Classes of Nursery School Set for Opening Next Week

Children enrolled in the Orinda Cooperative Nursery School are awaiting the opening of classes, at the Children's Unit of the Orinda Community Church. Next Wednesday for the pre-kindergarten group and Thursday for the 2½ to 3½ year old group.

IN PREPARATION for an exciting new year, mothers have been invited to attend an orientation program to be held at the Orinda Community Church Fellowship Hall Tuesday at 9 a.m.

This meeting will provide an informal opportunity for new and old members to become acquainted and, at the same time, will give cooperating mothers a preview of their duties on days of participation, the nursery announces.

Three short films will be shown, entitled "Understanding Children's Play," "When Should Grownups Help?" and "When Should Grownups Stop Fights?"

THESE FILMS have been especially chosen to answer questions most frequently asked by mothers helping at nursery school.

Refreshments will be served and a tour of the school will be conducted following the program.

Mrs. David Brunson is hostess chairman for this event, assisted by Mesdames William Love Jr., E. L. Smith and Robert Bartlett.

PH Recreation District Sets Trustee Election for Nov. 6

Terms of two trustees of the Pleasant Hill Park, Recreation and Parkway District will expire January 1. Election for the posts will be November 6, according to Michael Kiely, superintendent of the district.

R-1 Zoning Gets Plan Compromise

A compromise was reached on rezoning to R-1 the neighborhoods within Del Hambre Terrace, Carmello Terrace and Diablo Drive, in Walnut Creek Planning Commission recommendations Wednesday night.

The area which will remain R-2 fronts generally on the anticipated freeway, and includes lots 15, 16, and others to the south, also lot 19 to the west. This will allow multiple dwellings, if approved by the city council.

The R-1 areas include the Carmello Terrace lots, split by the Vista Hermosa Road, lots 22, 23 and part of 24, west of Terrace Way, and north of Oak Vale Road, portions of other lots north of Oak Vale, lots 20, 21 and portions of others east of Terrace Way and lots 29, 30 and 31, south of Oak Vale.

No persons appeared in opposition to the rezoning, which drew a crowd several weeks ago in an earlier hearing.

The planners discussed the merits of both the multiple unit and single family zones. Chairman Roger Guichard commented that he didn't believe that freeways "ruin" adjacent residential property.

Planners Hear W.C. Sewer Plan

The Planning Commission Tuesday night held the first hearing on the General Sewerage Plan for the Walnut Creek, San Leandro, Vine Hill and Mt. Diablo drainage basins as submitted by the Public Works Department.

Included in this portion of the plan, which will eventually be integrated with the County-wide General Sewerage Plan for Contra Costa, were the bus-basins of San Ramon, Las Trampas, Tice, Lower Walnut Creek, Ygnacio Valley and Clayton Valley.

The plan was submitted to the planners by Jack Port, head of the county Sewage, Waste and Water Division of the department.

According to Port, the plan generally follows the recommendations of the Brown and Caldwell report, except for variations in the Danville area.

With a second hearing on this study area slated for some indefinite time in the future, the planners stressed that the hearing was not held to consider construction or financing of sewerage facilities or to establish a public agency to render sewerage service.

The study area included the communities of Concord, Walnut Creek, Pleasant Hill, Gregory Gardens, Vine Hill, Alamo, Danville, San Ramon, Clayton and Moraga. It is comprised of a total of approximately 137,000 acres.

Police officers said that Mank was driving north on San Miguel at 2 a.m., when he lost control of the car and struck the Walnut Creek, totally destroying the car.

Owner of the tree, Alfred Dahl of 1858 San Miguel, said that $600 damage was done to his property. The youth was taken to the Kaiser Hospital by his father.

Preferring jail to taking a cab home, Jo L. Trower, 32, of Manhattan Beach, and Rubie O'Connor, 37, of Concord, got their wish when stopped early last Friday morning by Walnut Creek officers.

They were questioned while walking near the interesction of Mt. Diablo Boulevard and Main Street at 12:15 a.m., and asked to take a cab home. They replied that they didn't have the money.

When booked at the county jail on charges of being drunk and vagrants, it was discovered that they did have the money, said police reports.

New Fire House In Orinda Ready For Inspection

Commissioners of the Orinda Fire District will hold a special meeting tomorrow at 11 a.m. for the purpose of inspecting Orinda's recently opened third fire house at the corner of Honeyhill Road and Via Las Cruces.

The $29,584 structure, upon which construction was begun by the Romley Construction Company of Walnut Creek last March, is now ready to fully supplement the fire protection offered by the older two houses.

HOUSING TWO fire trucks, one with 1000 gallon pumping capacity and the other with a 500 gallon capacity, the new station will have two men on duty on 24 hour shifts.

According to Orinda Fire Chief H. E. Wyatt, one of the greatest spurs to the building of the new house was the recent annexation of the Charles Hill area to the district from the Lafayette Fire District.

"The Charles Hil area is right across from the third fire house," Wyatt stated, "and it can now be given the extra protection it needs."

THE STRUCTURE, he added, was built as part of the fire district's decentralization program, designed to offer speedier service and more adequate protection.

Although it has not yet occurred, the chief added, the new house could go a long way toward changing the Orinda Fire District to a Board of Fire Underwriter insurance classification from a class four to class three.

"CLASS THREE is comparable to 'city' rates," Wyatt claimed, "and would mean a lower insurance rate."

Queried by The Sun as to how the two men on duty would be able to handle the two trucks in the new house, Wyatt explained that the force there would be supplemented by help from the main fire house.

"The extra truck will be a stand-by," he said, "as we can run help to the house in case of emergency."

With finishing touches presently being put on the already operating house, new furnishings, radios and equipment have been installed.

Vandalism Ends In Midnight Swim

They left via the filter room exit. Deputies reported there was nothing taken from the premises.

"Practical Techniques to Assist Cooperative Community Promotion Efforts" will be Oddie's topic, while McFarland is slated to speak on "Essential Elements and Techniques for Cooperative Community Advertising and Sales Promotion."

Dinner, which will precede the clinic, will cost $2.50.

The second clinic, schedued for October, will be primarily a sales conference.

THE $1,500,000 DIAL EQUIPMENT BUILDING to be erected by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company at the west side of Santa Maria Way, across that road from the Pine Grove School, will look like this, as portrayed by architects for the phone company. Howard Greenhalgh, area manager for the phone company, discussed the project at a recent luncheon meeting of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce. He said that construction is expected to start about the first of October, and that building is expected to be opened 22 months later—by August 1, 1958.—Courtesy of Orinda News.

County Tax Rate Hiked 17 Cents

The Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors Tuesday set the official tax rate at $2.20, an increase of 17 cents over last year.

Richmond's tax rate was set slightly lower because the city operates its own library system. The Richmond tax rate, as set by the supervisors, is $2.11 per hundred dollars of assessed valuation.

OBSERVERS forsaw a 26.8 cent increase several weeks ago when the proposed budget was first brought to the attention of the supervisors.

Two unforseen developments chopped the local tax bill down considerably. They were a $127 thousand allocation from the federal government to needy children of the county, a $215 thousand cut in the budget and $400,000 revenue which will be obtained by the county next year from other than tax monies.

Another matter which came into prominence was a $13 thousand rebate from the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District for rental of lines and miscellaneous other items.

HOWARD E. McNAMER, auditor-controller of Contra Costa said the reduced appropriated reserve of $225 thousand is the lowest proportionately in years. He said negotiations are in progress with Solano County for construction of a joint boys' camp there. The park commission hopes to purchase Briones Valley land owned by East Bay Municipal Utility District for a park with its fund.

"The tax rate will vary in 199 separate county areas including 141 separate entities. The others vary as affected by local bond issue payment rates," said McNamer.

The rate is based on a total assessment roll of $651 million and mounts to $63 thousand on each cent of taxation, stated McNamer.

Wrong Advice Brings $5 Fine

Mrs. Turner also had to pay $1.86, the value of the pot holders.

School Board Launches Co-op Planting Plan

A cooperative enterprise has been launched by the Lafayette School District for planting flowers and grass at the intersection of Pleasant Hill and Springhill Roads, near Springhill School.

AT A MEETING of the School Board Monday night at the Stanley School, the trustees revealed plans to cooperate with both the county, which owns the property, and the Springhill Improvement Association in completing and maintaining the project.

The district, it was disclosed, has already applied to the county for encroachment rights. Present plans call for the school district to handle the architectural phase of the work and for the improvement association to take care of maintenance.

TRUSTEES ALSO signed an agreement with O. C. Jones for paving at three local schools.

The paving, which will begin soon, will be done at Springhill, Montecito and Burton schools.

A suggestion that tiny Lyon Lane should be extended to Bates Boulevard was also aired at the meeting. The board agreed that the blind street would hinder school bus traffic when the area around the street is sub-divided and grows more heavily populated.

A CONTRACT was signed with the Mt. Diablo Unified School District calling for the education of local cerebral palsied students to be handled by that district.

Mrs. Alice Alford, a teacher at Springhill School, has resigned her post because of illness. She will be replaced by Mrs. Harriett Webb, a former teacher in the Lafayette School District.

Frederick E. Cox, 55, of 2145 Walnut Boulevard, was driver of a car which last week was struck by a cab at Ellis and Taylor Streets, San Francisco.

The cab driver was cited for failure to yield the right of way. When the local man's car was hit and damaged, it was knocked aside, bounced off a light pole, and smashed into the cab's grille.

Both Cox and his wife, Marie, were treated at a hospital for minor hurts, and later released.

MD Poll Gives Trustees Various Stands on Schools

Trustees of the Mt. Diablo Unified School District learned Tuesday night that one large Walnut Creek area wishes to remain in MDUSD while another area wishes to transfer to the Walnut Creek system.

A study conducted by Dr. James D. MacConnell of Stanford University, shows that residents of 550 homes in an area just south of Geary Road and formerly a portion of Pleasant Hill desire to remain in the Mt. Diablo District. The Rancho San Miguel subdivision in Ygnacio Valley will take legal steps to join the Walnut Creek school district and Acalanes High School District.

THE TWO neighborhoods were polled by MacConnell who was hired by the trustees to survey borderline areas.

As a result of the study a new elementary school will be constructed in the Geary Road area, according to the trustees.

In answering to the poll, 51 per cent of the residents living south of Geary Road wished to remain in the MDUSD. Not wishin to remain in the district were 21 per cent, and 38 per cent of the persons asked expressed no preference.

In Rancho San Miguel 78 families were asked. Of these 49 expressed a desire of joining Walnut Creek and Acalanes, seven wished to remain in Diablo and 22 gave no preference.

IN THE AREA south of Geary Road a total of 405 of the 550 homes were contacted by the survey party.

In other action the trustees were informed that contractors were rushing to complete eight additions totaling 65 classrooms in the district's schools.

Double sessions will be necessary in some schools from one to several weeks due to construction now in progress. Gregory Gardens school will use the auditorium stage, library and rooms in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church next door while the classrooms are being built.

FAIR OAKS will occupy its six new classrooms although two of them are not completed.

Completion of most school projects in the Pleasant Hill area was set for today, but the state wide rush of schools trying to complete projects by Tuesday has made a serious shortage of workmen and material, say school architects.

County's Share of United Crusade Set at $424,955

Workers for the United Bay Area Crusade will strive to raise $424,955 in Contra Costa County, according to County Chairman Francis Watson of Richmond.

Watson was chairman of the West Contra Costa drive last year. It achieved 100 per cent of its quota.

The overall goal for the East Bay is $11,017,000, compared to $9,700,000 raised last year.

THE 13 PER CENT overall hike is due to added requirements of health, welfare and recreation agencies and the increasing number of families in the Bay Area.

There will be five county teams and two Bay-wide divisions operating under the direction of Campaign Chairman Jack K. Horton.

The San Francisco District will aim for $3,381,319, by soliciting especially for industrial and business firms.

BIGGEST PORTION of UBAC's $11,017,000 is assigned to its two area-wide campaign teams, Horton said.

Division A and Military Division will solicit donations on a Bay-wide basis in recognition of the fact that large corporations do business, and military installations are located, all around the bay.

Division A, headed by Belford Brown of San Francisco, will seek corporation gifts totalling $4,057,492.

The military team has a target of $481,570. Maj. Gen. Roy H. Lynn, USAF, is chairman of the military campaign at 40 armed forces stations around the bay.

Money raised by all seven of these campaign teams will be distributed to Crusade agencies in all five counties by UBAC's allocations committee, headed by Donald Grant of San Mateo.

MORE THAN half of UBAC's money is intended for agencies aiding families and youth.

This year the Crusade's money is being spent as follows:

For youth groups and recreation centers, 28 per cent; for family counseling and child care agencies, 27 per cent; for community health services, including hospitals, 10 per cent.

Thirty five per cent for other specialized services — including USO, Red Cross and the national foundations for cancer, arthritis, multiple sclerosis, cerebral palsy and heart disease.

"Increasing popularity of swimming in our area has created a demand for qualified instructors in public and private pools," E. T. Ewert, chairman of the local Red Cross chapter, stated.

A welcome home is planned for Mrs. Lynn Gillard, president, and after lunch there will be a short business meeting, at which time delegates to the annual meeting of the Lawyers' Wives of California will be introduced.

Chairman of the delegation is Mrs. Samuel H. Wagener of Lafayette, with Mrs. Nathan Gray, Mrs. Robert H. Dreher, Mrs. Joseph E. Smith, Mrs. John T. Williams, Mrs. William S. Parrish and Mrs. Franklin C. Stark joining her as delegates to the September 17 conference in Los Angeles.

Milk Prices to Rise Tomorrow

Residents of Contra Costa County will be paying 22½ cents a quart for milk starting tomorrow, a boost of 1½ cents.

The price hike was ordered for the Bay Area and Northern California by the State Agriculture Department's Milk Control Bureau at Sacramento after hearings decided the bureau that rises were warranted because of a rise in producers' costs.

Milk prices will be subject to indefinite fluctuations, however, the bureau disclosed. The new price will remain in effect until April 1, 1957, at which time it will go down one cent.

Five months later it will again go up, and this seasonal shifting is expected to continue.

The increases are designed to give farmers a general 69 cent increase per hundred-weight in the price of bulk milk sold to dairies. There will be a one-half cent a quart increase in seven Southern California counties.

Prices in San Francisco and Marin Counties will go to 22 cents.

Safety Drive Has $4000 Local Goal

"Sing Up For Safety" will be the theme of the Citizens Action Force for Safety during the first two weeks in September, when thousands of local youngsters are "wending their precarious way back to school," said Willard E. Stone, Walnut Creek Action Force Chairman.

The citizens group, conducting a county-wide campaign for funds with which to establish a full-time, professionally directed safety program in this rapidly growing area, will intensify their appeal to local organizations, business firms and interested citizens during the opening days of school.

Stone said that the Contra Costa Safety Council, an affiliate of the National Safety Council, will be able to strengthen its safety education programs in the schools and homes, as well as in traffic and industrial divisions, as soon as support is provided by an aroused community.

Contra Costa County ranks third among counties in the state needing immediate professional help in conducting accident prevention programs, according to the California Traffic Safety Foundation.

The Walnut Creek Chamber of Commerce has endorsed the current fund-raising project of the safety council, which has set a local goal of $4000.

Present plans call for the opening of permanent headquarters and the activation of a qualified staff in October, if Contra Costa communities back the present undertaking.

PTA School of Information Will Be Thursday

Plans for the School of information of the Mount Diablo Council of Parents and Teachers to be held Thursday at the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church were discussed August 23 when the Executive Board met at the home of Mrs. Tom Hazlett, president.

Registration for the school will be at 9:45 a.m. at the church, before a short business meeting.

From 10:30 to 12 the new officers and chairmen of the PTA units will attend specific conferences where assistance will be given them.

Mrs. Lawrence Wallace, civil defense chairman, said that the problems of civil defense affect every family and since evacuation plans will be distributed this fall it is important that unit C.D. chairmen attend the workshop.

Mounty Diablo Council went on record as urging that there be no cut in county budget funds for recreation and parks.

The Council also endorsed the Green Cross Safety Program for Contra Costa County, and encourages all parents and citizens to interest themselves in safety education. The Council looked favorably on the program of the Central Contra Costa Youth Concerts, and will cooperate with their board in bringing the information to the PTA units.

COMPARE THE LOW-PRICED THREE FOR DURABILITY
New 500 mile record set at the Indianapolis Speedway proves the extra durability you get in a 1956 FORD
No stock car—of any make—had gone even one lap at Indianapolis Speedway at 100 m.p.h.—until Ford set out to give dramatic proof of the superior performance of the 1956 Ford V-8.
Result—an average speed of 107.126 m.p.h. for the full 500 miles.
Driving like this certainly calls for more durability than you'll need. But it's good to know you have it—thanks to such important exclusive Ford durability features as these:
1. Ford has a 5 cross-member K-bar frame. Where other low-priced cars have two or three cross-members, Ford brings you five. K-bar construction for extra strength, extra safety is a Ford exclusive.
2. Deep-block V-8 engine. Only Ford engines in the low-price field have an extra-deep block . . . for greater rigidity, smoother going, longer life! Both Ford's Six and best-selling V-8 have short-stroke design for less friction and longer engine life.
3. Huskiest Ball-Joint Front Suspension. Ford's improved Ball-Joint suspension, with wide-spread support arms and rigid forgings is the huskiest in its field. One of the safety factors engineered into all '56 Fords.
And now you can get your new Ford a new way...THE FORD FAMILY PLAN
You choose the Ford your family wants and needs. Then your Ford Dealer helps you work out a deal tailored to your family budget. There's no fixed down payment... no fixed monthly payments. You get an easy payment plan based on a generous trade-in allowance and your own monthly income.

Anti-Pinball Action Is Delayed Again

A few weeks ago Sheriff Harry A. Brown asked the Board of Supervisors to enact an ordinance outlawing all pinball machines in the county, and also to take action for regulating and licensing of card rooms in unincorporated areas of the county.

Although they instructed the district attorney to prepare an ordinance for the control of card rooms, the supervisors showed little interest in the anti-pinball request. Board Chairman H. L. Cummings remarked that the board would take the matter "under consideration."

Last week both matters came up again before the Board of Supervisors. Hearing on the request for the pinball ban was delayed until September 4, as was the proposed card room licensing. G. L. Gill, Marsh Creek resort owner, who in the past has sought to block moves to illegalize pinball machines in the county, once again asked delay.

The latest development in Martinez has a familiar ring. Several years ago, when the County Grand Jury strongly urged that an ordinance outlawing all pinball machines be adopted, the same sort of delaying tactics were used — and the same people who are delaying action now said, in effect, "Let's appoint a committee to study the problem."

A committee was appointed — and then nothing further happened.

Now the technique is the very same. Once again the basic idea apparently is "Let's delay, so that we can forget the whole thing again."

The Sun maintains that the Board of Supervisors has delayed far too long on this matter. We stress that the outlawing of ALL pinball machines in the county and the strict regulating of card rooms should no longer be delayed.

For, as we have repeatedly emphasized, pinball machines which are now legal can easily be converted into illegal multiple-play machines, making it virtually impossible for the sheriff's office to enforce legal operation of pinball machines.

Also, illegal gambling is usually accompanied by corrouption or demoralization of public officials, and good government is broken down.

The County Grand Jury of several years ago recognized the magnitude of the pinball "empire" — and both state and federal authorities are concerned over the problem.

We're not talking about "peanuts." We're talking about a million-dollar operation.

It's not a "minor vice" — it's big-time gambling that we're talking about, and all the attendant corrupting influences, leading to serious problems in law enforcement and in guidance of juveniles.

Most cities in Contra Costa County have passed ordinances prohibiting all pinball machines. It is high time that the Board of Supervisors takes similar action.

What They Say . .

Call Plumber Nonsense . . .

Are you one of the millions of Americans currently driving carpenters, plumbers, painters, furniture makers and designers to distraction?

HAVE YOU SCORNED your spouse's advise to get professional help in making home repairs and matched hammer and wrench dexterity with the best of them?

Have your two little hands brought forth finished (and not-so-finished) products with facility you never knew you possessed?

In other words, are you a "Do-it yourself" enthusiast?

Despite bruised thumbs and thoroughly ingrained paint splotches on him, your roving reporter this week launched into new home projects with a zest that only a die-hard do-it-yourselfer could manage.

With the undaunted spirit born of self-reliance, and a first-aid kit nearby, he went to work.

This lent him to wondering how many of his neighbors were of the same ilk, going through the same gyrations, feeling the same pride when a job was done.

KNOWING BETTER than most, perhaps, ,the efforts and satisfactions of a do-it-yourselfer is Mrs. Robert Peddicord, 4020 Natsaha Drive, Lafayette.

Mrs. Peddicord and her husband recently completed the ambitious project of doing all the interior work in their newly-built home. The structure, of course, was built by contractor, she said, but the Peddicords did the insulating, a good portion of the carpentry, the sanding, wall-papering and wood finishing.

"We started last February," she stated, "and worked nights and weekends. Believe me, my husband will never forget."

JUST AS ENGROSSED in her do-it-yourself work is Mrs. Elliott Ambuehl, 1038 Sunnybrook Drive, Lafayette.

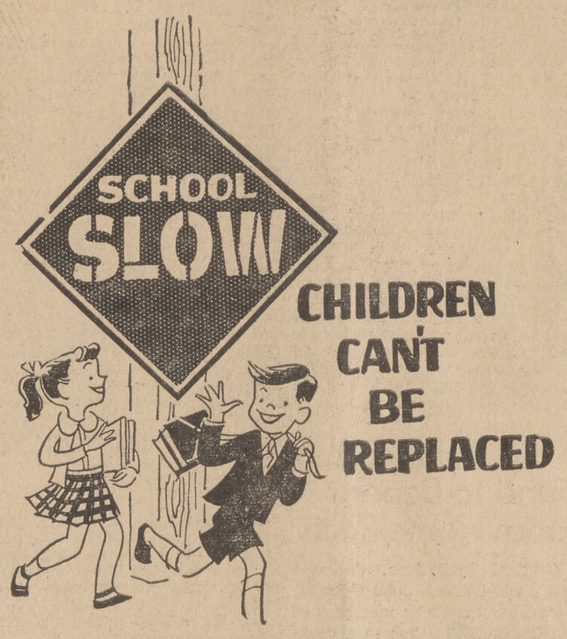
"I was working on fiberwood flowers this summer," she told us, "and I've been helping the Girl Scouts with their projects."

Mrs. Ambuehl reported that one of her Girl Scout efforts was instructing girls in interior decorating. Daughter Terry, 13, she added was also enthusiastic about making things herself.

"Terry had her own garden," she said. "She raised carrots, onions and string beans."

"DEFINITELY," was the reply of Mrs. William McCann Jr., 166 Camino Sobrante, Orinda, when asked whether she was interested in do-it-yourself work.

While her sons, Dennis, 14, and Terry, 11, were hard at work in their workshop with do-it-yourself kits, Mrs. McCann was busy picking and canning pears and fixing small things around the house.



Mrs. A. A. Ludeman of 1773 Shirley Drive, Pleasant Hill, said that whenever she has tried her hand at home repairs, "it didn't turn out very well."

"But I do like to cook and bake, and even after 33 years, my husband still seems to like my cooking. Our 33rd anniversary is today, August 31," she added.

"I DON'T MIND tackling some of the small things which come up, but I'll leave the big jobs for an expert," advised L. N. Grunder of 132 El Camino Corto, Walnut Creek.

Grunder does like to do the gardening, regularly, though.

Mrs. Heber Beckemeyer of 110 Pleasant View Drive, Pleasant Hill, confided that, "I'm not the type, when it comes to home projects."

"But I'm able to do other things, like making stuffed toys and cloth dolls for my younger children, and sometimes contribute the dolls to a church bazaar."

Mrs. Beckemeyer was born in the Danville area, and has lived in the new residence for only about five months. The family includes three girls and a boy.

"I REALLY ENJOY fixing up about the house," George Swallow of 139 Los Banos, Walnut Creek, said.

"We're building up our back yard, paving the patio and getting the new yard ready. We must moved in, and you start from scratch."

Swallow is an architect, and procured plans for the work from a landscape architect friend of his.

"Drainage is our biggest problem out here, but once elevations are adjusted, and the right cuts are made in the earth, the job is done," he added.

'Book System is Outmoded'

A belief that "double taxation" may result from California's "outmoded" system of distributing textbooks to elementary schools was expressed Monday by Donald D. Doyle of Lafayette, chairman of the State Assembly Education Committee.

Doyle, addressing the Commonwealth Club in San Francsico, said that many of California's school districts "replace the state elementary textbooks with ones they purchasethemselves without ever using the state texts."

This occurs, he professed, because the schools feel "that their own local choices are more suitable for their own teaching needs as they see them from a close-hand, local viewpoint."

This "single-exclusive" system, now used by California and Arizona, was written into the state constitution in 1884 and calls for the state to select one basic textbook in each major subject and distribute to all public eltmentary schools.

Calling for modification of this constitutional clause, Doyle claimed that the present system results in "double spending and double taxation."

The assemblyman is scheduled to address the annual fall meeting of Alameda County School Board members on September 17 on this same general topic.

Letters to The Editor

GREGORY GARDENS

Dear Editor:

We who live in Gregory Gardens are justifiably proud of our tract. It becomes more beautiful each year as our trees grow larger and our gardens prosper. We are fortunate to have such a well organized water district, supplying us with unlimited water.

Many of us, however, are guilty of improper usage of this water. We see, every day, water constantly running gutters, and often sprinklers spraying directly out into the street.

So far, there are no plans to raise our water rate, but it could happen unless we show that we can handle our water properly. I propose a three-part solution for consideration (especially for those of us who have sloping lawns, and therefore more ready run-off).

1) Never turn sprinklers to full force. The water will run down and cover much of the area not directly sprayed. Leave it low and close to the house, moving it across gradually.

2) Spike the lawns. One of the sad facts is that the water is not being absorbed and therefore runs off very quickly.

3) Talk about the problem and exchange ideas on it with your neighbors. It must be kept in mind.

We tend to forget that we each have a responsibility in this water district. We will all be affected for the guilt of the few if rates are raised due to wasted water.

MRS. V. T. McBETH

NURSERY RHYME

Dear Editor:

I read in last week's Sun where Orinda's Civic Affairs Committee was urged to reverse its former vote opposing the state No. 4 freeway route (for the Shepherd Canyon Freeway), and that the motion was soundly defeated. Orinda is becoming aware of its nursery-school set and what to do about them.

Here's a nursery rhyme just for them:

CIVIC AFFAIRS has lost its sheep
They're up on their hill-top, fast asleep.
"Everyone's laughing at us," they say,
"For opposing everything — come what may.
So now we'll support No. 4 freeway,
A hospital, too, we'll ask of VA!"
"We'll not oppose — we'll support," they bleat,
As they frantically run and skurry to meet.

The noise and confusion of a freeway they'd bring —
"The State may plant roses if we're good," they sing.
"And the VA Hospital would be just the thing!
Such a lovely green belt!" How their bells do ring!

"We'll not oppose — we'll support," they bleat.
"Please don't laugh at us now as we skurry to meet."

WHAT'S THE MATTER with them is all we can ask,
What's behind our bell-sheep's unusual new mask?
It's simple, the formula —
Let me explain.
Our bell sheep oppose
When Orinda's to gain.
They're opposite still,
It's just a new face.
They need a new planet,
In far outer space.

"We'll not oppose — we'll support," they bleat!"
And we are still laughing as they skurry to meet.

Name withheld on request.

Under The Sun

By Herman Silverman

New approach to old problem

For some time I have been following a most interesting battle in favor of fluoridation of a water supply. As you know, The Sun has been campaigning for fluoridation for some years.) Here's a summary of the Oroville battle as reported recently by Fortnight magazine:

"...Dan Beebe, editor-publisher of the Oroville Mercury-Register, and this Sacramento Valley city may soon set a precedent for towns and cities across the country in its method of winning rights to fluoridate water.

"The story starts three years ago, when Beebe, whose memory of childhood dentist-chair torture still gives him a cold sweat, printed a State report that surveys of nine-to 15-year-old children in seven California cities, which had added one part of fluoride to one-million parts of water, showed tooth decay had been reduced from 50 to 66 per cent. Beebe thought of his own grandchildren, took a stroll among the children at the nearby school playground, checked local dentists and doctors on approval of the idea, and then got under day.

"What followed was a new avenue down which communities might go to obtain fluoridation. At first the city council adopted a resolution asking the California Water Service Company to act. The company replied by demanding an election to decide the issue.

Million-dollar question

"This has been standard procedure by the private company, which serves 30 nearby towns and cities, none of which has fluoridation. In most instances here and elsewhere fluoride loses in such elections. Why?

"Well, as soon as the news gets out, a national lobby moves, in force, into the area involved. Its workers go from door to door displaying bottles of poison and uttering dire warnings. The opposition comes from a religious (and other) groups and occasionally, if required, a rabble-rousing gent is brought in to whip up emotions with "Poisoning of drinking water means mass suicide," "madness gas," "socialized medicine," "murder, life and liberty." The usual reaction is that many voters are frightened.

"The official position of Oroville is that an election is inadvisable; such an election is not mentioned or required by State law. It believes that fluoridation is a scientific matter and should be decided by the health board and the city council—in conformity with a republican form of government. It realizes . . . that it is impossible to educate the electorate on a scientific matter within the confines of an election campaign.

So action was taken

"Oroville therefore filed a complaint with the California Public Utilities Commission asking t to order the local private water service to apply to the State Health Board for a permit to fluoridate the water. (Editor's note: Butte County and 30 organizations supported this action.)

"The State Commission decided to hold a hearing and the saner minds of Oroville determined to lick the . . . fanaticism once and for all.

"Nationally known scientists came as witnesses: Dr. H. Trendley Dean from Chicago, known as the father of fluoridation; biochemist Roy Doty, a leader in the American Dental Association; Dr. Nicholas Leona of the National Institute of Research; and others who had done much research and who testified that fluoride, while not damaging the health of the person, hardens the teeth so that, throughout the life of the subject, his teeth escape up to 60 per cent of the caries normally resulting.

"Upon renewal of the hearing the . . . opposition argued that it had no objection to chloride in the water because chloride treats the water but that fluoride in the water is against freedom of religion because fluoride treats the individual.

"Upon cross-examination, the opposition's expert, Dr. Frederick B. Exner, a Seattle radiologist, admitted that he had done no original research on fluorides.

An important decision

"It should be mentioned here that the jurisdiction of the Commission was not challenged by the water company and the water company itself did not attack fluoridation.

"Now if the Commission orders the water company to ask the State Health Board for a permit and the permit is granted, the only way to attack the action will be through the courts. Oroville will have set a precedent for other cities, many of which have tried and failed to have fluoridation.

"A huge scrapbook of editorials and stories testifies to the fine journalistic part played by the local newspaper—worthy of a Pulitzer prize."

What has happened since

The hearings before the P.U.C. took place some months ago. I have heard nothing about it since, so was most happy to see Ralph Bell, special representative of the Commission, walk into The Sun office the other day.

First I asked him if the East Bay Municipal Utility District was, by any chance, under the Commission's jurisdiction. He said no.

Then, I asked if he would let me know the status of the Oroville case.

I just received his reply by mail. The Commission has taken the Oroville proceedings "under submission and I do not know when a decision will be issued."

Well, let's keep an eye on this most important case.

Diamond 'Hats Off'

This past summer has seen a blossoming of organized baseball leagues for young boys throughout this area. Walnut Creek, Pleasant Hill, Lafayette and Orinda — all were the scenes for baseball activity involving hundreds of lads.

This activity was made possible by the hard work and cooperation of many adult persons and groups — and, of course, by the enthusiastic response of the youngsters. The result, as is well known, has been a highly successful season.

Therefore The Sun says "Hats off!" to all the people and organizations in our communities that did the necessary spadework and that carried on — the merchants, leaders, parents, service clubs and various recreation programs — as well as to the boys themselves. And we hope that this program can not only be continued and enlarged — but, also, that it can be expanded so as to include teenagers in the years to come.

Therapy Unit Gets Ready For Authors

Work Progress reports on the unit's forthcoming Authors' Tea were given by Tananger bo[illegible] members when they met with President Mrs. Stanley Majka recently.

October 11 is the date set for the affair, which will be held in the new solarium at Orchard Nursery. The symposium of authors, moderated by Ken Carnahan, promises news and views of many literary works.

Tananger members have also voted in favor of participating in the all-unit project of supervising the play areas and attending Associated General Contractors' Parade of Homes Week at Rheem Center from September 15 through 23.

With most of the members scheduled to be returned from vacations, the unit's annual Fun Party will be held at the Sleepy Hollow Lane home of Mr. and Mrs. William Brobeck. It will serve as a kickoff for the unit's eighth year of actively sponsoring the Mt. Diablo Theraphy Center in Walnut Creek.

Barckley, in charge of the cocktail hour; R. J. Jones, food chairman; Kenneth Alexander, invitations; Vernon Adams, entertainment; Richard Fehr, reservations, and George Yorg, hospitality.

The annual barbecue is the first social event of the year. Mrs. Grothman and her committee are planning a Halloween dance and potluck dinner this fall.

Marlors Fete Guests

Summer house guest of her son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Marlor, of 2072 Walnut Boulevard, Walnut Creek, is the former Berkeley resident, Mrs. Valerie S. Marlor now of Cheverly, Maryland.

Parties honoring Mrs. Marlor included a dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Tudor of Oakland, and a luncheon at which Mrs. William H. Kelley of Claremont Avenue entertained.

Mrs. Marlor was also hostess to a group of friends at a gathering in her son's Walnut Creek home.

Moraga Club 'Rush' Hailed

With hundreds of members attending and many newcomers signing up as new members, the Moraga Valley Country Club "rushing party" last Sunday was hailed as a success in all departments.

This new club, at the site of the Carroll Ranch near Rheem Center in Moraga, has two more swimming pools, a new clubhouse, tennis courts and bowling greens planned, with opening set for next spring.

An aquacade and an Indian Summer fashion show that included models displaying $500 gold lame swimsuits, featured last Sunday's festivities at the Moraga Valley County Club poolside.

Mother and daughter styles from Moraga Casuals Shop drew wide acclaim, as did Mrs. William Keating and Mrs. John DeGarda in those fabulous gold lame swimsuits.

Hundreds of gold coins were stitched to the golden fabric of the swimsuits. Anyone actually swimming in them probably would be sunk by the weight, but for modeling purposes they attracted a big hand.

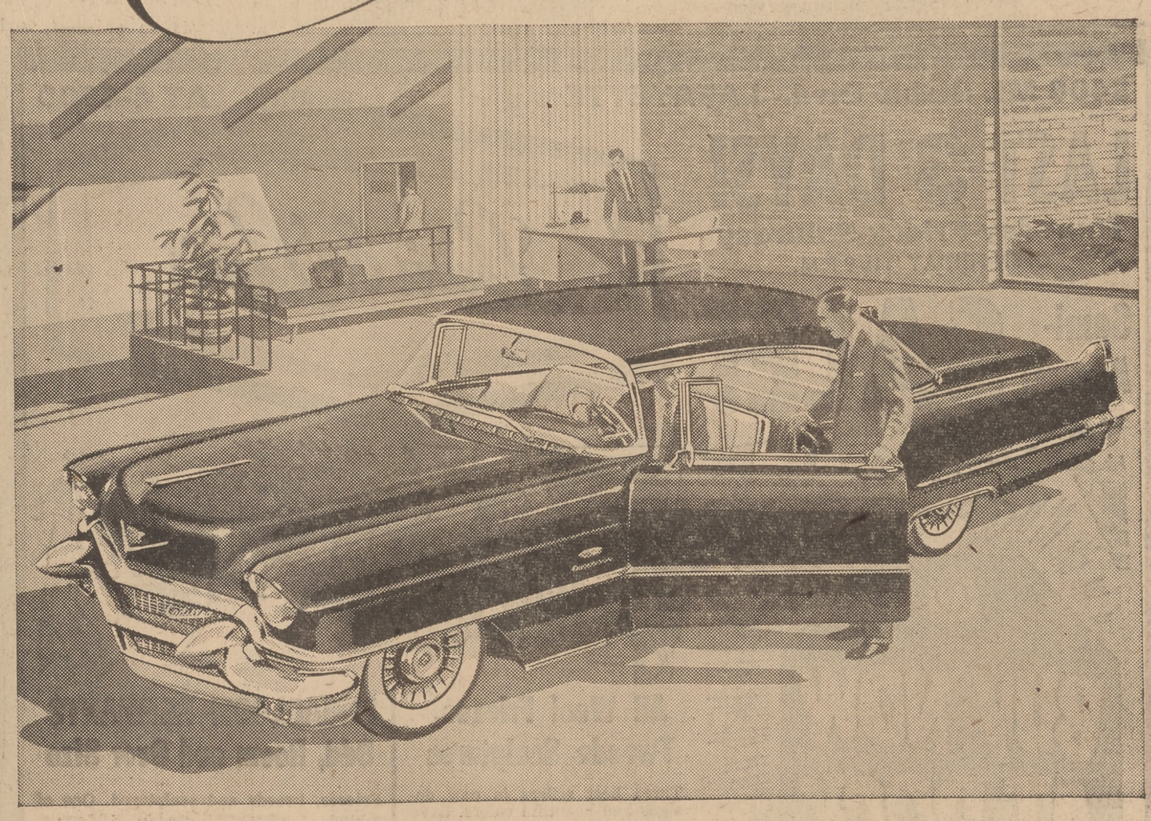
Cadillac


The Right Decision—at the Right Time!
There is good reason why the man sitting in the beautiful motor car above looks so pleased.
He has decided to make the move to Cadillac!
This, to be sure, is cause for great personal satisfaction in itself. For the wisdom of selecting Cadillac is undeniable.
But not only does this gentleman know he has made the wisest possible choice of a motor car—he knows that he has made it at the wisest possible time.
For coming, as he did, at this particular season of the year, he was able to take advantage of some very favorable circumstances.
To begin with, he will be able to obtain delivery of his Cadillac after the shortest waiting period in many, many months.
And, even more importantly, he discovered that Cadillac ownership has become more attractive and economical than ever before. Because of low used-car inventory, it is currently possible to receive an unusually generous trade-in allowance.
Little wonder, then, that this gentleman looks so pleased and happy—just as we know you will when you get the full, wonderful facts about Cadillac today!
In fact, we should like to suggest that you come in and hear them for yourself.
We know you'll agree that the right decision is for Cadillac—and that the right time is now!

Four Bedroom Homes are Coming Into Their Own

By BILL HAYWARD

MARTINEZ GROWING

Martinez gets a shot in the arm upon hearing the news about Dr. Degnan's plans to develop the land south of Arnold Industrial Highway. According to the tentative maps over 900 homes will be built in this area. This is larger than the original Gregory Gardens subdivision.

Plans will call for another school or two, recreational area, a playground, possibly another community pool, a fire house along with a complete shopping center somewhere in the midst of this neighborhood—actually another city in itself. Who was it who said, "Martinez is asleep?"

REALTORS' CONVENTION, SAN FRANCISCO

This is the headquarters for the 1956 State convention, the date, September 30 to October 4. The Sheraton Palace Hotel will be the focal point for the conferences and educational sessions. A great number of your Contra Costa realtors have made reservations to attend. As usual, to gain renewed enthusiasm and new inspiration for better business.

Concord . . . Work is under way on the $1,300,000 addition to the Concord Communuity Hospital. It is scheduled for completion about this time next year. The contractor is Hans Wachsmuth of Danville.

Saranap . . . According to the Contra Costa Planning Commission the residents of Saranap again refused a spot zoning on the corner of Boulevard Way and Iris Lane. This was to have been a very attractive medical-dental office.

On the eastern waterfront . . . Still growing with Pittsburg's bid for heavy industry . . . the new name . . . Pittsburg Park . . . with 233 lots. The developer, the Sherman Park Development Co. of Beverly Hills, California. Add this to the Plumleigh family activity of 900 lots in Antioch should make everybody happy in eastern Contra Costa.

Orchids to the junior member of the Parker family, King, that is "pay dirt," I like!

GETTING BOOK ROOMS in order has been a prime chore of secretaries in the county for the past several weeks. Ordering revisions and stock piling texts from 'See Bob Run to Atomic Energy' has kept purchasing offices quite busy.

SCHOOL CUSTODIANS throughout Central Contra Costa were busy this past week getting schools ready for the influx of students next week. Charles N. Johnson wades through a room full of desks and other school furniture, as the opening day of school approaches.

Family Carnival Termed Success

August 17 at Pleasant Hill High School was a night of gayety and entertainment for over 300 persons as the Pleasant Hill Recreation District culminated its summer playground program with the Fourth Annual Family Carnival night.

Each of the six playground directors with the assistance of leaders and numerous volunteers set up two booths to represent their respective playground. Such activities as checker pitch, nail pounding, candle put out, fishing, dart throw, ring toss, dunking ducks and many others tested the skill of the many participants. Prizes were awarded the more skilled. Soft drinks and pop-corn were sold.

A program of entertainment and award presentation was carried out with Hal White, Oak Park Playground Director, acting as Master of Ceremonies. Michael Kiely, superintendnt, was introduced and gave a short welcoming speech and a summary of the summer program. District talent show winners and the tumbling classes provided a variety of entertainment.

Awards were presented by Kiely and White to the District Tournament winners, District sports day champions, and the baseball and softball league champions.

Blue Birds, Camp Fire Girls Cook At Church Site

Blue Birds and Camp Fire Girls sponsored by Christ the King Catholic Church of Pleasant Hill enjoyed an evening cook-out recently on the church grounds surrounding the parish Youth Lodge.

Camp Fire girls demonstrated correct fire-building to their little sister Blue Birds. Foil cookery on hot coals was combined with toasting weiners on sticks.

As the lights of the fires died down, songs were sung. A full moon brought closer by viewing it through binoculars, added to the magic of the evening. No one left until all had glimpsed the planet Mars rising over Mt. Diablo. The feeling of the entire group, as they departed was expressed by one slpeey-eyed Blue Bird as she begged, "Lets have another cook-out soon, please!"

Acalanes Valley Notes

By DOROTHEA CUMMINGS, AT 3-2973

NOTES FROM AFAR

Hi, friends and neighbors! Just want you to know that the Cummings family, or most of it anyway, is still in Acalanes Valley and will be at least until October 1.

However, George the Commuter now seems to be commuting between Lafayette and Los Angeles rather than Lafayette and San Francisco and, for that reason, has had to forsake Greyhound.

And now to news in our Valley. Biggest news, of course, is that you can get here easily once more and need no longer detour through Hidden Valley and far places. And, before long, we may even have a two-lane road again!

Latest newcomer to the Valley is Mr. and Mrs. D. R. "Mac" McLeod's new little dachshund, "Tinker," who replaces dear old "Red," who for so many years followed "Mac" around his garden.

Incidentally, if you're interested in a good method for housebreaking a puppy, ask "Mac." He's having good luck with putting "Tinker" to bed each night in a garbage can in the garage!

MANY RETURNS

Susan Lewis, young daughter of Betty and Martin Lewis, is now eight years old. She had a delightful birthday party the other day to celebrate the occasion, and a family celebration on Sunday.

Among her guests were Norma Jean Hawkins, Patty Chilcote, Jackie Caddell, Barbara Davis, Cam Morris, Sidney Wilson, her sister, Linda Lewis, and her brother, Richard.

Marianne Drive, as well as most of the rest of the Valley, has been a deserted street the past few weeks. The Craigs, Barbara and Walter, together with 4-year-old Carol, spent a week eating and swimming at the Berkeley Recreation Camp at Tuolumne. As it is with most vacationers, they were wishing they could stay longer.

The Parker family, including Helen and Al, together with daughter Martha and son Denny, were out of town for two weeks on a combined business and pleasure trip which took them up into Oregon, Washington and Canada.

After spending a few days in Portland, the Parkers visited Seattle and Olympia and called on relatives in Little Rock, Wash.

However, they spent most of their time making a thorough tour of the area around Vancouver and Victoria.

Inside Glenside

By BETTY NOACK, AT 3-3706

Best wishes are extended to Joanne Neuman, daughter of Charles and Ginny Neuman of Glenside Drive. Joanne recently announced her engagement to William J. Sheridan of South Bend, Ind.

Joanne graduated from Cal, majoring in decorative art and was a Zeta Tau Alpha. William is a philosophy student at St. Mary's College.

IT'S 'TROTH SEASON

Another engagement is that of Gerald Anderson, son of Hilda Anderson of Glenside Drive, to Jacqueline Brown of Berkeley. Jacqueline is a Sigma Kappa at Cal and a member of the Athens Club synchronized swimming team. Jerry's a Phi Kappa Psi member at the university was a star basketball player.

He is now on the faculty and coach at Sacramento Junior College.

Glensiders are reminded to "red letter" Saturday, September 8, for the Glenside Family Picnic . . . setting is the new Meadowbrook Country Club in Reliez Valley.

Busy helping with picnic plans are George and Molly Hearne, Bert Scarborough, "Scottie" Scott, Marion and Don Waldman, Lester Wolfe and Harry and Marge Sommers.

A touch of fall in the air—with back-to-school plans and lots of group activities in the offing.

On September 4, the day before school begins, the Lafayette Women's Club will hold a "Forecast for Fall" Fashion Show around the Myers pool on Los Palos Drive.

On Thursday, September 13, the Lawton Shurtleff home on Los Palos Circle will be the attractive setting for a benefit dessert bridge party for the Lafayette Republican Women's Club.

GOT THE CALLING

Best of luck to the David Altman family—the Glenside neighborhood will miss them. They are moving to Esparto, a town near Woodland, where Dave is entering the teaching profession and will teach math and physics at the Union High School there.

The Hollister family—Harold, Wayne, Stanley and Nettie are among the many who attended a session of the Republican Convention at the Cow Palace.

Festival Race Is Top Event Of Annual Fete

About a hundred neighborhood high school track coaches have been mailed information about the 1.9 Walnut Festival foot race, to be held September 23, it was announced.

Chairman of the local race is Andy MacCone who said this week that high school boys may compete in the race as unattached individuals.

The 1.9 mile race is comparable to the regulation 1.8 mile high school cross country distance, except that this is over paved city streets, he said.

There will also be a senior race of 5.7 miles.

Winner of the high school race last year, was Herb Cloe of El Cerrito High, with a time of 9 minutes, 31 seconds.

Milford King of Stanford won the senior run in 30 minutes 10 seconds.

Entres fir the race may be made to MacCone at 1840 Geary Road, Walnut Creek.

Brown Smashes Collarbone in Pre-Season Scrum

Practice sessions for the coming pigskin season were barely under way at Las Lomas High when the Knights were struck what could be a mortal blow to their championship aspirations.

The blow fell Tuesday when ace halfback Duane Brown was tackled from behind in a scrimmage. Brown, the league's leading scorer last season, went down and stayed down.

Examinations revealed that Brown had broken his collarbone, leaving a hollow spot in the Knight backfield. Leading contender to replace him seems to be Ken Stevens, a 1955 letterman.

Headman coach George De Klotz and asssistants George Davis and Vere Butler are expending their efforts on about 50 grid candidates. Competition for the coveted Varsity spots is keen as the sqaud will soon be pared down to 35 players.

Cut players will go to the Junior Varsity, where coach Butler will take over their gridiron fortunes. Butler, new at Las Lomas this year, comes by way of Willits and will serve as baseball coach in the spring.

All is not gloom with the Knights, however, as many letterman are showing up to and beyond expectations. Shining especially bright is Webb Johnson, who as a junior last year made All-county center.

He has been shifted for a try at the fullback spot, and at 190 pounds has looked very good in early drills.

Pete Ostrom, younger brother of '55 Knight standout Rick, looks to be ready to take over the regular halfgack chores. Last year, as a sophomore, he was on the JV club.

Abig battle looms at the center spot with the position wide open since Johnson's shift to the backfield. The pivit position is shaping up as a trouble spot.

Graduation has hit the Knight gridders especially hard at the end spots.

Britt Williams, up from the JV eleven, looks to be a good bet at one flang, with the other end still up for grabs and the coaches' satisfaction.

Jim Symington at the quarterback position looks good and promises to make a strong bid for All-county honors.

The Knights were set to open with San Ramon as their home field, but it is certain that the school's new lights won't be ready for the September 14 date.

Arrangements for the game are now in a state of flux, and the contest could wind up on the Acalanes High field on September 15.

USE CROSSWALKS

Approximately 40 per cent of pedestrian deaths are due to crossing between intersections. It's not very smart to gamble a lifetime trying to save a minute. Use the crosswalks!

Miramonte Grid Outlook Seems Good

The Miramonte Matadors look to be in for a good grid season, as they have a new turf field to work and plany on, have all players back plus a few transfers, and in addition have two coaches instead of one, plus a brand new frosh class.

The Matadors will confine their play to J.V. and frosh ball, inasmuch as they have but frosh and sophs in school.

The turnout, once school gets underway, appears to be 50-50, with that number on each squad.

THE MIRAMONTE football squad will be in charge of Don Phillips, who will report as new headman.

Bob Callan, who tutored the club last year, will work as assistant coach.

Phillips, who comes from Tule Lake High, is a graduate of San Jose State, where he played football. He also played on the Jacksonville, Fla., Navy club during the war.

Miramonte had a good season last year, when they wound up in a three-way tie with Las Lomas and Acalanes, each club winning two and losing two.

THE SOPHOMORES are working out this week, with the frosh due to report next Wednesday with the opening of school.

Blessed with a good frosh crew, last year's Matadors figure to be anything but a pushover in their first season of league J.V. play.

The Matadors have time to get acquainted with their new coach and his system, as they don't play their first game until September 28.

September 28—Las Lomas at Miramonte.
October 5—Acalanes at Acalanes.
October 12—Pittsburg at Miramonte.
October 19—Pacifica at Pacifica.
October 26—Antioch at Miramonte.
November 2—Mt. Diablo at Concord.
November 9—Pleasant Hill at Pleasant Hill.

Hardtop Racing Is Tomorrow At Local Track

Hardtop racing returns to Contra Costa Speedway tomorrow night, after a two months' absence.

Promoter Gene Marsh announced that contracts have been signed with Bay Cities Racing Association for a 50-lap main event. Eight races are scheduled.

More than 70 of Northern California's leading hardtop drivers are expected to compete for $1000 prize money. The field will probably include a number of out-of-state drivers, according to Marsh.

Officials are waiting to learn if Chuck Webb, Sacramento ace, will defend his BCRA points lead. Webb set a new one-quarter mile record of 17.07 seconds at the Contra Costa track in the first race of the season. He followed by winning the race itself.

Among other top-notchers whose entries are being awaited are: Bob Caswell and Johnny Franklin, San Anselmo; Chet Thompson. Joe Neault, Ted Montague and Pee Wee Waybright, all of Oakland; Ray Travels, San Pablo; Lee Humphers, Richmond; Gene Dudley, Napa, and a Sacramento area delegation that includes Wally Baker, Mel Baker and Stan Mulock.

Besides the 50-lap main, the show will include a trophy dash, four heat races, a final heat and a semi-main. Time trials are slated for 7 p.m. with the races to begin at 8:30.

EBMUD in New Headquarters

Since Monday the East Bay Municipal Utility District has been headquartered in a new administration building. During last weekend all general offices of EBMUD were moved from 512 16th Street, Oakland, to a new office center at 2130 Adeline Street. A shorter move to the new building was made by the EBMUD engineering department, from 2127 Adeline Street.

Knights Go Under Lights November 9

The Las Lomas Knights will go "under the lights" for the first time November 9, when they are hosts to the Acalanes Dons.

This will be the final game of the season for the Knights, who earlier had hoped that night lights purchased from the Oakland pro baseball team would be erected early in the season.

The schedule has been revised so that the first three night games "at home" will actually be played on the Acalanes field.

A campaign is currently being conducted to rase $20,000 to pay for the lights. The delay is due to problems of cement casings, power supply, wiring and mounting of poles.

The football schedule is as follows:

Sept. 14—San Ramon at Las Lomas (afternoon).
Sept. 21—Sir Francis Drake at San Anselmo.
Sept. 28—Bye.
Oct. 5—Antioch at Acalanes.
Oct. 12—Pleasant Hill at Concord.
Oct. 19—Mt. Diablo at Acalanes.
Oct. 26—Pacifica.
Nov. 2—Pittsburg at Pittsburg.
Nov. 9—Acalanes at Las Lomas.

110 Don Grid Prospects Shaping Up for Openers

Some 110 football aspirants have been going through their training paces recently at Acalanes High School under the watchful and critical eyes of the Don coaching staff.

With the team still in the formative stage, Junior Varsity coaches have been looking at better than 60 candidates, while the Varsity mentors have fewer men but no smaller task with their nearly 50 prospects.

Coach Jack Carhart, new headman of the JV eleven, has a bit to whip his charges into shape as more time than the Varsity staff his opening game doesn't come until September 20. The Don Babes play host to the Alhambra Bullpups on that date over Martinez way.

Carhart especially wants to win this one as it will be his first game, plus the fact he will be meeting his old Alma Mater.

It will take a couple of weeks to ascertain his lineup since he has a large group to begin with and will have a number of prospects coming down from hte Varsity coaches Jean Ridley and Bob Stevens had a tentative lineup Tuesday for his open with Alhambra at Martinez on September 14.

Although changes in the lineup are probable, at last reading the first team included Art Batcheld er at center and Jim Dinkel and Bill Broderick at the guards.

John Cadwell and Frank Malynn were spotted a the tackles, with Steve Jordan and Bob Parker set on the flanks.

In the backfield it was Rick Markstein at Q. B. with Stuart Busby at full. Dave Bojarsky and Harold Ecklund rounded out the backfield in the halfback roles.

Markstein and Busby looked especially good in early punting drills, while in the wind sprints standouts were Bojarsky, Jordan, and halfbacks Rick Davis and Larry Pilcher.

The Dons appear to have a good first eleven but the big problem lies in building adequate reserve power.

Don coaches plan heavy drills and lots of experimenting in practice games prior to the open-in gof league play on September 28.

One certainty is that the mentors are much more enlightened about their team than they were during Monday night's practice when somebody forgot to turn on the main light switch.

But lights or not, real insight into the team's ability will not come before the Dons enter combat September 14.

Soltau Swim School Plans Big Aquacade

An aquacade will be held September 9 at the Soltau Swim School, of Walnut Creek, according to L. J. Soltau, owner and manager of the school.

A large variety of swimming events will be held, including lifesaving demonstrations, synchronized swimming, and a performance by "Nicky," a trained seal which has appeared on television.

The show will begin at 3 p.m. The school is located at 2540 San Miguel Drive, Walnut Creek. The public is invited, and there is no admission charge, said Soltau. Persons who wish may swim free after the show, he added.

Debbie Howell Wins Jr. Olympics Race

Debbie Howell, 5, took first place in the length (50 feet freestyle competition) for 5-6 year olds at the Valley Art Center's "Junior Olympics" held at the Lafayette home of Mrs. Harold Powell recently. Jamie Merrill of Lafayette was second in this swim event.

The shortest race of the 40-event meet (one width of the pool, open to 5-6-year olds, was won by Steve Shenton. Second was Cameron MacVean and third, David Herr, according to Mrs. Rawlings Simon, chairman of the meet which benefitted the Valley Art Center's building fund.

Diamond Chatter...

Baseball Yields to Grid Fever; Winter League?

By MEL ALAMANO

Baseball has lost its place in the sun, and football has taken over.

Many boys have questioned us on a winter league, but at the present time nothing can be said on the set up.

A special meeting will be held in a week to discuss it. At the present time four sponsors are interested. Until vacations are over and the excitement of getting back to school is over, no announcement can be made.

Quite a few fellows who played in the Rec Leagues will be out for freshman football, and until the cut in the squad is made, no teams will be formed.

This program will not conflict with grammar school football and basketball.

Many thanks to the people who wrote the article on Gord McNutly and this writer thinks it was very nice of them.

Remember the dates on the award nights for Walnut Creek's Rec Leagues. Coast League night is Sept. 11 at 7:15 p.m., in the Rec building.

Western and Eastern leagues will have their night September 13 at 7:15 p.m., same place.

Mrs. Ruth Wallace and Bob Maxey are planning for a big turnout of parents and players. Refreshments will be served after the team awards have been made.

A notice will be sent to all schools according to Mr. Maxey.

In answer to many people's inquiries on junior football leagues, most grade schools have football. After investigating, we found that a football league such as the Pop Warner leagues is costly, and very hard to control when you have so many boys as in our area.

Maybe in the future some people may want to form such a program.

Many boys have not returned their baseball uniforms to their managers, and it is causing a delay in getting them packed and moth-balled away. Please have suits and socks cleaned. You can keep the caps.

Hopes are high at the present time for better and more baseball diamonds, next year, and any new developments will be reported when it is confirmed by the officials.

Las Lomas and Acalanes have some terrific prospects enrolling this year, and their freshman teams should be loaded when baseball season rolls around.

Ferris Fain, Sacramento Solon coach and former batting champ in the big leagues, will manage a team in Walnut Creek's boys league next year if he decides to retire from pro-ball.

Ferris would make a terrific Coast League manager in our book. If he should decide to manage Holiday Kitchens next year, which he sponsored, we'll welcome "Burr-head."

He really is for our kids!

Soon as school gets under way we will attempt to keep you posted on sports in the grammar schools and some high school news.

Swim Exhibition Held at School

An exhibition of diving, water ballet, and swimming techniques was held at the Las Lomas High School pool in Walnut Creek recently.

High and fancy diving was demonstrated by Mrs. Jane Fauntz Manske, former olympic diving champion and instructor in diving for classes sponsored by the Walnut Creek Recreation Commission, and Mrs. Manske's assistant, Eileen McLaren.

The Water Ballet was under the direction of Mrs. Madeline DeKlotz. Class Demonstrations of swimming techniques were directed by Rick Ostrom, swimming instructor for the "Learn To Swim" program sponsored by the Recreation Department and a lifeguard for the Community Swimming program.

The exhibition lasted approximately two hours.

Senior Citizens Elect Officers

The new Pleasant Hill Senior Citizen's Club has been organized at the Pleasant Hill Park Recreation Center, Oak Park Boulevard and Pleasant Hil Road in Pleasant Hill.

Officers were elected at the first meeting which was held Tuesday to serve the 1956 year. The following officers were elected: President Mrs. Glen Switzer; on the advisory committee, Mesdames Sue Johnson, Fay McElroy Genevieve Sullivan, Maryl Marshall and Elizabeth Blakemore.

The Senior Citizens will meet at noon on Tuesdays at the Recreation Center for dessert and a social afternoon. Anyone 50 years and up are welcome to join others to find both companionship and entertainment in this group of young-old Pleasant Hill residents.

Are Gridders Now Softer? Only According to Grads

By ERWIN MATTSON

The prep grid season got under way last Monday when practice sessions opened with hundreds of eager candidates for the various squads on hand.

Sideline observers were plentiful and their interest was great as they watched the teams go through their drills.

IT IS INTERESTING to note that one of the most common sage remarks of recent graduates is, "They look good, but boy are they small!"

It so happens that such a remark was made at an Acalanes workout by one of last year's players, who incidentally weighs less than 150 in a full dress suit.

As a matter of the scales, this year's squad at Acalanes will be considerably larger and heavier than last year's. Frank Malynn, who was 185 last year, is now over 200. Another example is Steve Jordan, up from 170 to 195.

RECORDS SHOW that the high school preps are getting heavier and taller. Recent graduates are usually fooled because they leave high school and are associated with older students in college or with adults in daily life.

Then there seems to be a certain psychology that makes graduates look down on the undergrads, just as a Senior always feels that the incoming frosh are much smaller than they were at a comparable stage.

The schedule for lights at Las Lomas appears to have gotten off schedule. Plans call for installation of the lights, but they won't be ready until late in the season, if at all.

It is going to be an interesting football season as no one appears to have too much of a head start as far as veteran lettermen are concerned.

LETTERMEN RETURNING tell only a partial story, however, as awards are given on a different basis at each school.

Some give letters relatively easily—others make it quite difficult. In one case a player is required to play in practically three-quarters of the total quarters for the season.

In another, making the squad and getting in a few minutes in several games results in a letter.

THE REAL TEST will come with practice games when the chips are down and the players are under fire. Some will rise under the stress of game play, while others will fall apart with the advent of "pressure play."

Football is a changing game, and you can look for innovations in the offensive play of teams.

The work of practice is fun to most players now—and it's new and interesting. With the passage of time and hours of drill, to some it will become drudgery—to others it will still be play, and to the team that has the most players who still look forward with enthusiasm to the daily workout will go a successful season.

Attitude is still 90 per cent of the game.

Health Officers Urge Checking Of Young Teeth

The County Health Department today urged parents to have dental examinations and necessary treatment for children entering kindergarten.

The reminder from the Health Department was based on dental examinations of 2,500 kindergarteners, one-third of whom were found to be in urgent need of dental care.

Other findings showeed that 78 per cent of the 5-year-olds have experienced dental decay; that on the average each child has four teeth that have been attacked by decay and that sixty per cent of the defects are uncorrected.

In addition to regular dental care for better dental health, the County Health Department recommended moderation in the use of sweets and brushing the teeth with water and swallowing when right after eating.

Here Is How to Keep Your Phone Busy

When Mrs. R. D. Andrews of 558 Lakewood Road, Walnut Creek placed a classified ad with The Sun, she had expected results, because people had said that The Sun is read by thousands.

But she didn't expect to get 43 phone calls in reply — a development which kept her on the run long after she had sold a freezer, Navajo rug and mahogany desk.

And so it goes, with folks who place classified ads with The Sun.

They automatically go into the Sun Shopping News, with a circulation of 37,200.

They also go into the Pleasant Hill Sun, Walnut Creek Sun, Orinda Sun and Lafayette Sun, so thousands more see it.

The cost is only $1.40 for 14 words, run in all five papers listed above. Less cost for two and three week runs, too.

And if you have an article worth less than $15, put in in "Bargain Counter," and pay only $1.50 for 10 words for two weeks, with a 50 cent refund if the sale is in the first week!

Safety Council Seeking Aides

Two secretarial volunteers are needed to assist a safety council in Walnut Creek.

Hours and length of service at the convenience of the volunteer. If you could donate a few hours this week or any week during summer, call the Volunteer Bureau of the Walnut Creek Area, YE 4-0424, for further information.

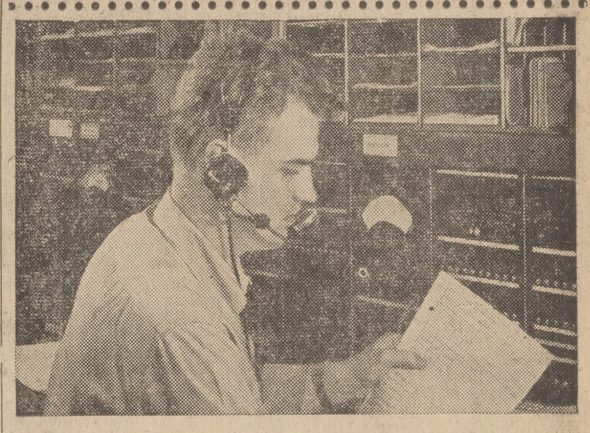
WHAT'S DOING

Howard Greenhalgh, your Telephone Manager in Orinda



It's more than a job—it's a career

Did you know that one out of every five telephone men have been with Pacific Telephone over 20 years? One out of four telephone women have been with us over ten years. Many have been with us much longer. For a telephone job is much more than just a job. It's a career. And as telephone men and women gain valuable experience, they move up to jobs with more responsibility. This gives all of us at Pacific Telephone a sense of accomplishment. And it means that your telephone service is always in the hands of well trained, experienced people. It means better service to you. The men and women of Pacific Telephone work to make your telephone more useful every day.

* * * * *

They'll be as close as your telephone

Well, they'll soon be packed up and off to school. And then the slam-bang activity that's been going on all summer will slow down. Sure, it'll be peaceful. But it's a good bet, too, that you'll be happy to hear their voices often. So why not plan now to make regular telephone visits with your boy or girl away at school this coming semester. You can tell them to call home collect, too. You'll be surprised to find how low long distance rates really are, especially after 6 o'clock on weekdays and all day Sundays.

LOOKING TO THE FUTURE is the John E. Lindberg family—left to right, Joan, 16; Robin, 11; Mrs. Lindberg and Mr. Lindberg, shown surveying the charred remains of their home at 953 Hawthorn Drive, Lafayette, which was destroyed by fire last February. Work has just started on complete clearing of the premises, under direction of Claude Arnold, preparatory to rebuilding the family home at the site. The family is temporarily living in Belvedere.—Sun photo by Mattson.

Student Sailors Return Home

Back in the U. S. after a summertime cruise aboard ships of the Atlantic Fleet are Midshipmen Richard H. May and Richard E. Ong, both of Lafeyette.

May, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. May, 1134 Nogales Street and Ong, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph D. Ong, 639 Los Palos Drive, were among 1000 midshipmen representing 52 colleges and universities who sailed on the 14 ships.

During the cruise they visited Panama and Cuba and got "on the job" training in gunnery, navigation and engineering to prepare for duties they will perform as Navy Ensigns after graduation from college.

May is a student at the University of California, while Ong calls Oregon State College his alma mater.

Mom, Daughter Motor to Canada

A long-time ambition was realized recently for Mrs. E. M. Matson, 1135 Camino Vallecito, Happy Valley, when she and her daughter Shirley, 15, took a month long car trip to Canada.

Spending a big portion of the vacation near Lake Louise and the Banff resort, mother and daughter also went up to the Columbia Ice Fields in the Jasper National Park and visited the Glacier National Park.

Their itinery also took them to Vancouver, and on the trip home they stopped in Seattle and had a look at the Oregon caves.

"We had been planning to go to Canada for some time," said Mrs. Matson on her return. "The scenery was just magnificent," she commented.
